Probation following probations — crime up

Granite City police arrested 82 percent more persons in August than in the same month in 1977, but the rising arrest rate does not seem to be decreasing the crime rate, some observers feel.

Authorities have told the Press-Record that most serious crimes, particularly violent crimes, are committed by persons who are familiar to officers from previous arrests and many of them are on probation.

In some cases, the courts give probation for a felony to a person who already is on probation from a previous felony, records indicate.

Granite City police arrested 213 persons for non-traffic offenses during August, a 78 percent increase over the 119 persons arrested in non-traffic cases in August 1977.

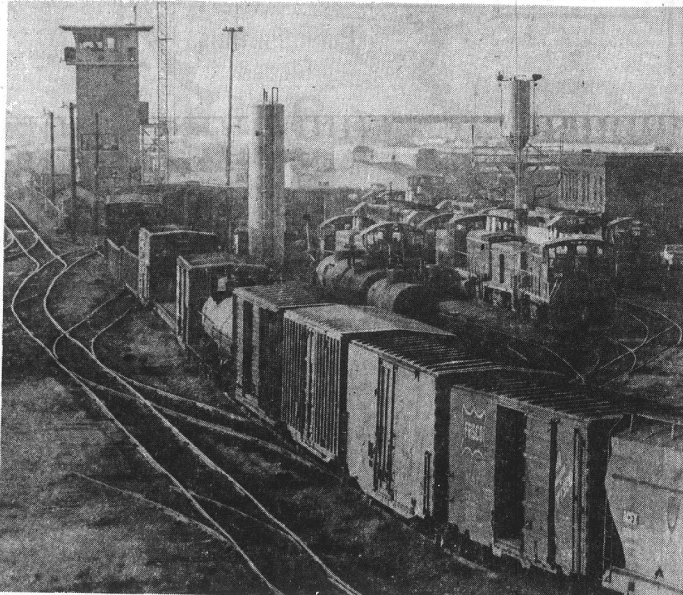

Yet, the number of serious crimes during August climbed 21.3 percent, from 225 in August 1977 to 273 last month. Total arrests, including traffic, were up 82 percent, from 263 in August last year to 479 in August, 1978.

Serious crimes are designated as homicide, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, auto burglary, larceny and auto thefts.

Why? some ask. Is it a lack of prosecution? Too many probations given? Quick releases from penitentiaries? Possibly it is all of the above.

The police contend they are being tough enough. When a person is implicated in a felony, they search for probable cause to

More delay on probe of sheriff staff

A "last minute" written opinion from the Madison County state's attorney's office delayed and may have dashed the hopes of Madison County Board Member Daniel Partney to have the county investigate the sheriff's department.

As the board members arrived for the September meeting Wednesday morning in Edwardsville, they were presented copies of a legal opinion from Mike Thompson, assistant county state's attorney. It contended the county board does not have the authority to call for an investigation into activities of department members.

The letter contended that only the sheriff, John Maeras, can initiate an inquiry by the Sheriff's Merit Commission into allegations regarding deputies.

It also expressed the opinion that the county board lacks power to compel the state's attorney to conduct an investigation into an elected county official's department.

After reading the letter, the board voted to table a resolution Partney had introduced calling for investigations by both the Merit Commission and the state's attorney's office into allegations made during the June-July 1978 trial of three former Madison policemen on racketeering and perjury charges.

Voting against the motion to table the resolution were Partney, Louis Whitsett of Nameoki Township, Fred Dalton of Collinsville and Lawrence Spelman of Troy, and R. H. Worthen of Alton.

Absent were Charles Bode of Edwardsville, Frank Vivod of Collinsville and Arthur "Cooper" Moore of Madison.

The other 20 board members voted in favor of the motion to table the resolution. Partney then made a motion that the

State's pace still slow at lake park

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Development of Horseshoe Lake State Park is likely to continue at about its present pace, unless the legislature increases funding for land acquisition and development, Bob Thornberry, landscape architect for the Illinois Department of Conservation, told the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce park planning committee Monday afternoon.

Thornberry said numerous problems plague the park, not the least of which is the quality of the water and the silt which is rapidly filling the lake.

Horseshoe Lake is considered "old" in its life cycle and is becoming shallower and shallower as silt is deposited from incoming streams, draining canals and other sources, he explained.

In some areas, the lake is only about four inches deep and there are only a few areas where it is deep enough to support a boat from scraping bottom, he added.

Ideally, state parks try to have water four feet deep for boating and other recreational activities, but it may be possible to utilize Horseshoe Lake for boating with only about two feet of water, he stated.

For proper wildlife habitation, one-fourth of the lake should be eight feet deep, but that is a standard which can be altered somewhat, Thornberry indicated.

Increased water depth can be obtained by dredging the bottom of the lake, raising the water level, or a combination of both, but several factors affect the lake level, it was noted.

The Metro-East Sanitary District is charged with controlling the level of the lake to assure adequate water retention capacity in the event of a large storm. Gates to control the level have been constructed and are under the district's control, he pointed out.

The U.S. Corps of Engineers also may have some control over the lake level in the future as planning is under way for a complete drainage program, and the lake is likely to play an important role in that program, Thornberry noted.

Hillside drainage, however, offers the hope that the federal government may participate financially in improvements to the lake, possibly contributing 50 to 70 percent of the costs of some of the work. An Interagency Task Force with members representing 10 agencies, including the Corps, the sanitary district, the 'Back that overpass!'

A telephone-telegraph campaign to convince legislators of the need of funds to build the proposed downtown overpass in Granite City has been initiated by Mayor Paul Schuler.

The mayor urged Granite City citizens and officials to either call or send telegrams to Cong. Melvin Price and U.S. Senators Charles H. Percy and Adlai Stevenson explaining the need of grant funds to finance the overpass construction.

During the regular meeting of the City Council Tuesday night, Mayor Schuler asked the aldermen and city department heads "to get on the phone or send a telegram" to Price and the two senators. "I would suggest you emphasize that $25 million has been assured East St. Louis to build seven overpasses in that city, while Granite City is nearly without anything," the mayor told the officials.

Meanwhile, Mayor Schuler noted, city officials and volunteer citizens continue to circulate petitions directed to Cong. Price, asking him to step up efforts to obtain funds for the overpass project.

The petition drive was begun about a month ago, and more than 6,000 signatures have been collected.

Mayor Schuler said Price is expected home late this month and that efforts will

When Mark Childers left Granite City in January, he wasn't interested in returning to school, having quit North High in his junior year, he couldn't get a steady job that paid anything and he had no particular direction to his life.

Now, nine months later, Mark has a whole new concept of living and is enthusiastic about the future.

He is learning a trade that he's enjoying; he has a center General Educational Development Certificate in his hip pocket and soon will have a Montana State GED diploma to his credit.

Mark has adapted extremely well to vastly different surroundings than his native Granite City — and the wide open spaces and nearby tree covered mountains of Southwestern Montana, close to the Idaho state line.

His parents are happy and proud of Mark and so is Sharon Barber of the Illinois Job Service (formerly of Illinois State Employment Service), who Mark stopped in to visit while home.

The local young man is one of 216 men at Trapper Creek Civilian Conservation Center in Darby, Mont.

He is home on 30 days leave and will return to Montana Friday.

His enthusiasm for Montana and the outdoor life is contagious, and he talks with equal warmth about his fellow corpsmen, the Trapper Creek staff members and several girlfriends he's discovered in Missoula and other nearby communities.

Mark is a fine product of the new style Job Corps, a youth oriented training program which is renewing its efforts to recruit young men between 16 and 22 years old, or rather one day less than 22 years to be accurate on the maximum age.

Trapper Creek CC Center in Darby (pop. 538) is operated by the U.S. Forest Service and offers its corpsmen courses in building maintenance, carpentry, cooking, painting, welding and automotive mechanics.

The Montana center is outside the region served by the Illinois Job Service, but Mark really wanted to be assigned there and a special application, made on his behalf by the Granite City Job Service office, was successful.

"About half of the guys there are from Ohio and the rest come from Massachusetts, Michigan or Philadelphia," Mark said.

"I wanted to go to Trapper Creek because five years ago my family went to Eureka, Mont., on vacation and we all liked the country," he said.

Eureka is a small town about eight miles from the border between British Columbia, Canada, and the extreme Northwest section of Montana.

Although the center is operated by the U.S. Forest Service and the corpsmen apprentice

Cemetery improvement cancels hearing plan

Due to major improvements carried out at Sunset Hill Cemetery, a public hearing called for Sept. 26 won't be held, President Henry D. Karandjeff was informed Wednesday morning by Illinois Comptroller Michael Bakalis.

Verification is being made this week on disbursements earmarked for cemetery maintenance costs. All of the allocated funds were spent on maintenance, so no problems are expected, Karandjeff said.

Major purpose of the hearing would have been to determine from various complainants whether there has been sufficient improvement in the appearance of the cemetery since high weed and grass problems were noted prior to and during the Memorial Day 1978 holidays. Inspections this week showed the cemetery lawn to be in good condition.

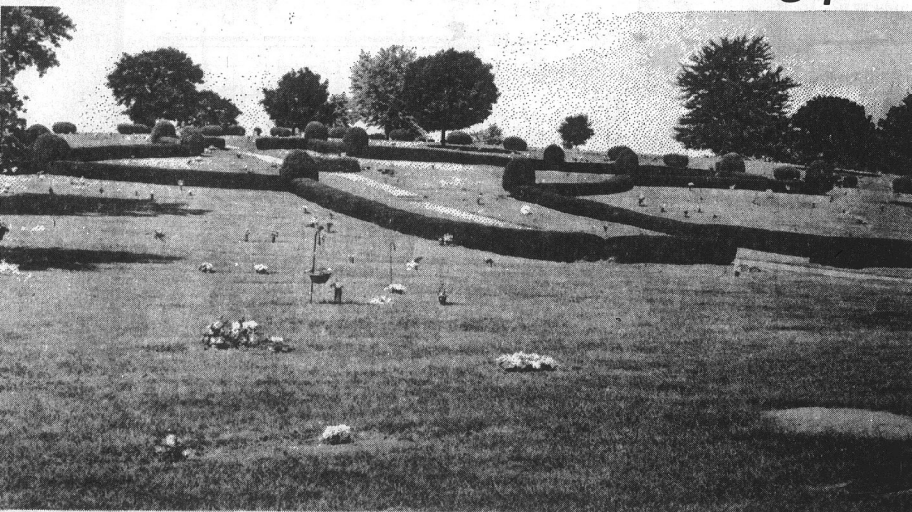

Joseph Kavanaugh, who had announced the public hearing, is superintendent of the Cemetery Care and Burial Trust Section of the office of State Comptroller Bakalis. Karandjeff is president of the cemetery association.

Aides to Kavanaugh said this morning they had nothing specific to report regarding the hearing. They were attempting to contact Kavanaugh.

Kavanaugh earlier said the hearing would be on a citation to show cause why the license for cemetery operation should

Weed spray hampers maturity of grapes

By CHRIS DOLL,
Area Garden Adviser
Uneven ripening of grapes, especially the Concord variety, may be due to one or more causes. Failure to ripen properly has been a serious problem for some gardeners in 1977 and 1978. Weed spray drift, disease infection and weather are the most likely causes.

The fruit symptoms are green, red and blue grapes in the same cluster and entire clusters seldom ripen at one time. When caused by weed spray drift, it is usually some form of 2,4-D which may have been used to kill dandelions or other broad leaved weeds. It also causes crinkled, distorted leaves on new shoots, and when this is visible it usually is the cause.

If the leaves are normal in shape, but have yellow, tan, or black discoloration over part or all the surface, disease is the problem. Humid, hot weather in late July favored disease infection this year and many grapes will not ripen because of this. A spray program for disease control could have prevented the infection, so do this next year.

Another possible cause of uneven ripening is overproduction combined with low plant vigor. When more fruit is produced than the plant can mature, the fruits will be off-color with poor flavor and maturity. Proper pruning and culture should prevent this in the future.

Fail planting of bare-rooted fruit plants is a questionable practice in Southwestern Illinois. Good nursery stock usually isn't available till late, and if planted then is exposed to the winter weather and pests. Transplanting directly from one location to another may be OK if it's done in mid to late October. But the delays that occur during harvesting and marketing nursery trees usually make planting later than this.

Advantages of fall planting are good soil conditions, plenty of time, and maybe better growth next spring. Disadvantages of planting this fall are that all varieties aren't available from nurseries, and the young plant is exposed to weather variables and pests. With spring planting, the nursery stock has been in storage protected from these problems.

If fall planting is done, it's best to plant as soon as stock can be obtained. However, this may not be until late October or early November because the nursery must wait for leaf drop and best digging time. Planting at this time won't permit much root growth, so a heavy layer of a straw or other organic mulch over the root zone of the planted trees is suggested. Strawberries and brambles should be covered completely during the winter to prevent heaving.

MURDER ON THE
YELLOW BRICK ROAD
By Stuart Kaminsky
(St. Martin's Press)

Reviewed by Barbara Lawrence
SIUE Department of English
Stuart Kaminsky's second
Toby Peters novel, "Murder on the Yellow Brick Road," is another nostalgic look at Hollywood in the early '40s. A midjet, dressed in a Munchkin costume, is found stabbed to death on the abandoned set from "Oz," filmed a year earlier.

To protect MGM and Judy Garland from adverse publicity, Toby agrees to find the killer, despite the fact that the police—in the person of his brother, Phil—have already arrested another midjet for the crime.

Two more murders and several attempts on his own life find Toby in a porno movie ring operated by some very mean people. After he gets out of the hospital, Toby saves Judy Garland's life and turns the killer over to the police. There is a lot of action, plus an unusual plot and a surprise ending.

Needless to say, along the way, Toby meets such celebrities as Clark Gable and Louis B. Mayer.

It has the potential for great fun but is seriously flawed. The main fault with the novel is that Kaminsky attempts too much. Not only does he try to recreate Hollywood in 1940, he tries to emulate Raymond Chandler. He attempts to recapture the entire environment: radio programs, commercials, news items, food prices and even football scores litter his pages. Consequently, he achieves nothing in depth. Furthermore, he attempts all this in the first-person account of a tough private investigator, complete with obligatory seduction scene by an attractive female.

To compound the felony, Kaminsky has Raymond Chandler himself helping out, following him about, because he, Chandler, has never seen a real-life private eye before. Neither, one suspects, has Kaminsky.

There is also some bad writing. For example, "The room was getting amoky and smelled like leftover cow's breath." And a string of obscenities mouthed by a midjet named Peece is called "a small education." Kaminsky does achieve one thing; it makes you appreciate Chandler all the more.

STUDY NEEDS OF DYING PERSONS ON OCT. 4

A workshop designed to sensitize nursing professionals and paraprofessionals to the problems faced by dying persons will be offered by the Continuing Education Program in the SIUE School of Nursing on Oct. 4. Participants will be introduced to the needs of the dying, members of their families, friends and the people who are caring for them. Students will also learn how well those needs are met in a typical American long-term cancer facility and in hospices in England.

Probation

arrest him. Frequently, even when an officer is the victim, the state's attorney's office will refuse to issue a felony complaint, recommending instead that misdemeanor charges be filed, some officers contend.

Weakness of the case prepared against the individual is the most frequent reason cited for refusal to issue a felony information document by the state's attorney's office.

"If we don't think the case will stand up in court, we won't file the charge. Instead, we'll seek something else we can prove," an assistant state's attorney told the Press-Record recently.

However, difficulty in getting some felonies approved seems only a small part of the problem in getting fair sentences in felony crimes, many agree.

Of the numerous felonies approved by the state's attorney's office, very few perpetrators see the inside of a jail cell for long, records indicate.

Plea bargaining where a lesser sentence is offered in return for a guilty plea, plays a role. Reduced charges in return for a plea grants relief to other felons.

Occasionally, a jury feels the charge is too strong for the actions of the defendant and finds him guilty of a lesser charge.

Then it is put into the judge's hands to determine what is fair to the defendant and provides adequate safeguards to the general public. Sentences posted recently for local residents at the criminal division office in the county courthouse showed the following:

One young woman charged with burglary was sentenced by Associate Judge Philip J. Rarick to six months of probation after the charge was reduced to criminal trespass to land.

A young man charged with delivery of a controlled substance had that reduced to possession of a controlled substance and was sentenced by Circuit Judge Harold Clark to serve two years of probation and participation in a drug rehabilitation program.

A 17-year-old charged with two counts of possession of a controlled substance negotiated the dismissal of one charge and Judge Clark granted him two years of probation on the other.

A 20-year-old man charged with burglary pleaded guilty to that charge and was sentenced to serve one year of probation by Judge Clark.

A man charged with possessing a large amount of marijuana negotiated a plea for possessing a smaller amount and was ordered by Associate Judge P. J. O'Neill to participate six months in a rehabilitation program.

Another 21-year-old charged with burglary pleaded guilty and was given two years of probation by Circuit Judge A. A. Matocian.

Sometimes the judge decides to give defendants a three-month or six-month jail term to be served at the end of the probation term, with the understanding that he can modify the sentence, if the defendant stays out of trouble during his probation. Many of the "tail-end" jail terms are dismissed.

The Illinois Department of Corrections also is criticized for releasing some prisoners before their designated terms are up.

One young Granite City man sentenced recently to 270 days at Vandalia on a theft charge was released less than six months later. While he was sentenced to jail for the theft, he was given three years of probation by Circuit Judge Joseph J. Barr after pleading guilty to stabbing another local youth in August 1977.

At that time, he was on probation for a January 1977 aggravated assault case filed after the attack of a Granite City police officer had been dismissed.

Some police officers say that the obvious increase in the crime rate results from an increased willingness by the public to report crimes. In the past, they say, many crimes have gone unreported because of the reluctance of the victims to become involved in court appearances.

some instances when there is overage in the number of students in a class. "We're continuing to modify our supervision of PE classes and we won't tolerate abuses. But we're trying to follow the spirit of the law, which calls for both sexes to have equal opportunity to engage in sports and physical fitness programs," a school administrator said.

The transition to an anti-sexist policy has been made over a number of years. "We've had a gradually increasing number of girls in vocational shop classes and boys in homemaking and cooking courses," the administrator noted.

"We've made a real effort to eliminate the possibly inhibiting 'he' and 'she' references in books and other texts."

Heavy penalties in loss of federal and state funds can be assessed against school systems that fail to abide by Title IX guidelines.

Washington officials have a backlog of complaints against various athletic programs, including those of more than 40 universities, and are beginning to force changes in recruiting, scholarships, facilities and equipment fund allocations. Exactly equal expenditures aren't necessary, HEW leaders say, but athletic opportunities must be "comparable," based on the numbers of students taking part. And the numbers must not be artificially controlled.

Just as citizens and local schools are groping for answers, so are federal bigwigs. Title IX inspectors say they permit "separate but equal" athletic programs, but the Constitution's 14th Amendment has been interpreted as classifying separate facilities as inherently unequal.

The Illinois High School Association has taken a stand against girls playing on boys' interscholastic teams, and the reverse. Title IX takes a more relaxed view, saying the only sports that can be segregated are football, basketball, wrestling, rugby, ice hockey and boxing. Equality trends have led to an increase in the number of sports established for girls. In Granite City, this list has grown to include tennis, field hockey, bowling, gymnastics, softball and basketball.

In general, competitive sports are less comprehensive the lower the age of the students. And because Title IX doesn't allow to get more money, it appears that its implementation will be less effective at U.S. elementary and junior high schools than at high schools and colleges, discussions showed.

4 hurt on Route 111

Four East St. Louis residents were injured when their auto, stopped for a red light at Route 111 and East Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, was struck from behind by the tractor-trailer of William Cady, 26, Dupu, Monday.

Cady was issued a ticket for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital were the driver of the auto, Lucius Donabey, 44, and three passengers in his car.

Donabey suffered pain to his right shoulder and numbness to his legs. Vert Wilson, 37, suffered pain to his neck and head, which hit the windshield. Mrs. Beverly Wilson, 29, suffered headache and neck pain.

The other passenger, Mrs. Eva Chapman, 66, bumped her head and suffered bruises to her left thigh, neck and back. All four were X-rayed here and were transferred at their requests to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis.

Faces battery, weapon charges

Glendon F. Jackson Jr., 18, of 3029 Myrtle Ave., was charged Monday with battery and unlawful use of a weapon stemming from an incident early Monday in Kirkpatrick Homes.

Jackson allegedly was seen with a pistol a short time after Gerald A. Fassel, 3504 Kirkpatrick Homes, was beaten. Fassel was found in his car in the Kirkpatrick Homes parking lot after the incident.

He told police he had left Stieb's Tavern when at least two men jumped and beat him. He suffered bruises and a cut to his face.

Jackson's bond was set at $10,000 and he was taken at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday to the county jail at Edwardsville.

PONTON ACCIDENT
Mrs. Nola Milton, 49, of 5 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, was injured when her car and the auto of James Runtz Jr., 2009 Lindell Ave., collided in the 2200 block of Pontoon Road, early this week. DeRuntz was issued a ticket charging following too closely.

Mrs. Milton was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted for observation with injuries to her head and back.

be made to present him the petitions at that time.

Thus far, Granite City has raised a total of $4,024,689 for construction of the overpass that will span the railroad tracks between downtown and West Granite City.

Estimated cost of the project, recently increased by $2 million because of inflation in building costs while planning has been under way, is now set at $7,629,559.

Mayor Schuler has noted that this leaves a balance of $3,604,870 to be raised by the city if the full construction cost is to be met. At that moment, he contends, the federal government is the most likely source of that funding.

Thus far the city has been allotted $1.4 million in funds under the Federal Aid to Urban System program, $1,711,045 by the Illinois Commerce Commission, grade crossing safety protection fund, $137,000 by the railroad whose tracks will be spanned by the structure, and $188,007 in motor fuel tax funds as the city's share of the project thus far.

Design plans are being completed by the M.W. Architect & Engineering firm of St. Louis and Mayor Schuler has said he hopes for a bid call on the project in January 1979.

LOOT COIN MACHINES

An undetermined amount of change was stolen from four coin-operated machines in the store and amusement center of the KOA Campgrounds on West Chain of Rocks Road in Mitchell, sheriff's deputies were told at 7:35 a.m. Tuesday. Entry was forced to the building and two pinball machines, a juke box and a pool table were broken into with the coins removed.

PARK LAND ACQUISITION for Horseshoe Lake State Park is shown in this map displayed by the Department of Conservation during a Chamber of Commerce committee meeting Monday. The darkest areas indicate land already acquired by the state and lighter areas are to be acquired in upcoming fiscal years. The inverted "L" shaped area at the bottom center and the small area at the top right are to be acquired in the near future, while the very light areas may not be purchased until 1980 or later. In-between shades indicate property scheduled for acquisition in the 1978 and 1979 fiscal years, including property now involved in condemnation proceedings. Route 111 is the boundary at the right and railroads form the top and bottom borders.

Department of Conservation and other local, state and federal agencies, has been created to study Horseshoe Lake development and to make recommendations on development plans which will be in the best interests of the future. The task force is attempting to formulate a development plan which deals with recreation, wildlife preservation, flood retention water pollution and other factors, he noted.

The main thrust of the Department of Conservation effort in the upcoming fiscal year (1979-80) will be to purchase the two main parcels of land needed to join the portions of the park on the eastern side of the lake.

To date, the Department of Conservation has spent about $4.5 million in land acquisition and about $500,000 in development.

About $350,000 is budgeted for the park in the 1979-80 fiscal year, mostly for land acquisition, but that total is subject to approval by the legislature.

"We have an odd situation here where we are buying the land, but do not have all the control over it. The sanitary district controls the lake level. Granite City Steel discharges water into the lake. We have to accept water from drainage ditches, including the Cahokia Canal, which have high sediment levels and there is a delta being created where it empties into the lake."

"We get pollution from surface drainage through the Nameoki Ditch and Doherty Slough. Quality Sand and Gravel uses part of the lake. A lot is going on in the area we have defined as ideal for a park," Thornberry stated.

He noted the water quality is poor, the level of micro-organisms in the water is low, some fish in the lake may be diseased and the lake is very shallow.

While a sign designating the park "Horseshoe Lake State Recreational Area" has been erected at the main entrance along Route 111, actually very little of the park is open to the public.

Boats are prohibited on the lake, except for those used by designated duck hunters getting to and from their blinds. Limited hunting, in season, is being allowed in some state-owned areas and the boundaries are designated by signs.

Most of Walker's Island is designated a wildlife preserve, particularly for the Canada goose, and crops now being grown on the island will be left standing for wildlife food.

The only section of the lake which does not freeze in the winter is the portion owned by Granite City Steel and concern was expressed over the plans for the company to put a duck blind there.

William Nichols, landowner in the area, said the geese require open water to drink in the winter and putting a blind there will likely cause the geese to leave the lake. Thornberry pledged to meet with company officials to express the concern.

He said a site manager and ranger now are assigned full-time to the lake and plans are to hire one or two full-time maintenance people. Workers from the Young Adults Conservation Corps, the Youth Conservation Corps and the Manpower program are being utilized for much of the work now being done at the park.

H. D. Karandjeff, who has been active in the efforts for a state park at Horseshoe Lake for decades, said he feels the state's primary goals should be to relocate the railroad tracks on the causeway and to acquire land which will link the new park to the Cahokia Mounds State Park and Monks Mound.

Karandjeff said the original state bill for the park, signed by Gov. William G. Stratton, called for the purchase of about 7,000 acres. "We are already compromising, because we are talking about 4,000 acres planned now."

He also said he feels a park entrance should be put along Route 162, closer to the Tri-Cities. "It has taken a long time to get this park going. We do not want to spend as much time for these improvements," Karandjeff stated.

Thornberry said the entire park project depends upon the water and plans to improve the water quality should have priority in the near future.

He noted the top one to two feet of the lake bed is silt which is filled with pollution. He said zinc thousands of times more than the state's standards has been found in the lake bottom which may have to be dredged or pumped out.

He said in the late 1950s, dredging the lake to an eight-foot depth at a cost of $1.5 million, was considered too expensive. Now, the work would cost about $50 million, he stated.

He did agree a "mud car," which could be used for dredging operations could be brought in and operated by one man rather than a crew of several men. The department's mud car is being used at another lake at the present time.

Thornberry was reminded of statements made in March by David Kenney, director of the Department of Conservation, in which he urged support of increasing the price of fishing and hunting licenses in the state to raise at least $5 million more for park development.

The cost of licenses was raised, but the budget for Horseshoe Lake has not been increased. Thornberry said he felt Kenney's statements at the March meeting were misunderstood, since most of the money will be used for better park law enforcement throughout the state and to augment construction of the state's new fish hatchery.

Leon Scroggins, committee member, said there is concern by the committee that conditions at the lake park "are pretty rough, and they are not going to get better until you get some manpower out there." He requested Thornberry supply the committee with realistic budget figures which would enable some progress to be made.

Edward Reiske, executive vice-president of the Chamber, said, "It just seems Carlyle, Rend Lake and the others are getting all the gravy and we're getting hardly anything."

Thornberry said Kenney is concerned with Horseshoe Lake development and has approved a sizeable budget item, compared to the department's overall budget for the park home.

Reiske stated, "The point is to get something started as soon as possible. We're tired of waiting."

He said he will investigate the possibility of getting Gov. Thompson, Kenney and some state legislators to view and possibly officially dedicate the park, but mostly to view the work that needs to be done so they can appropriate a sufficient amount of money to get the park going "as a recreational facility which is badly needed in this area."

Motorist rams terminal train

A motorist rams Illinois Terminal Engine 1510 with a 1964 auto at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday at the 22nd Street railroad crossing.

A member of the train crew said the motorist stopped at the crossing then attempted to ram the engine with his auto.

The driver jumped from the car and struck the engine with a bottle, nearly hitting a crew member. He then left the scene driving east.

The report failed to say whether the engine was blocking the crossing at the time of the attack.

Conservation

training programs are handled by qualified journeymen through the trade unions, the corpsmen have their own governing council to administer recreational programs, purchase various equipment and arrange dances and outings.

Mark was elected president of the Trapper Creek Corpsmen Council Aug. 21, winning over several opposition candidates.

"There are eight of us on the council and we meet each week to decide different activities for the corpsmen, who make suggestions for events to their dormitory representative on the council," Mark explained.

"Our next project is going to be a 'gong show.' We have about $400 or $500 for cash awards and we'll stage it in the gym, using three judges."

"It's really going to be something," he said with a smile, noting there are some good musicians among the corpsmen.

After completing a six-week leadership program, Mark was voted the "Most Promising Corpsman" and received a framed certificate, a dress uniform with leadership emblems and Job Corp patches on the sleeves.

"The guy who taught the course is really great," he said.

The corpsmen attend classes to gain their GED high school equivalency certificates and also work in the pre-apprenticeship training programs.

Mark selected cooking and baking and is quite enthusiastic about the program.

"After you get through, you can go on to get your baker's certificate," he said, explaining it is possible to be sent to chef's school or to the Marine Corps Cooks and Stewards Union school in Santa Rosa for a three-to-six months course.

"Then if you want, you can be assigned to a passenger ship or another type of ship as a cook," he said.

I am thinking about going to the Santa Rosa School," Mark said, but he also showed interest in remaining at Trapper Creek and going into the wedding program.

He has plenty of time to make up his mind, as he can remain at the Civilian Conservation Center.

At the Montana center, Mark said the corpsmen are allowed to keep their hair long, if they wish.

"At some centers, they don't let you do that," he commented.

"Maybe it's the longer hair, I don't know, but some people up there (Montana) are pretty prejudiced against the Job Corps. They are mostly cowboy types and don't like the long hairs," he said.

As part of on-the-job training, he spent one week cooking at a Youth Conservation Camp in Montana for about 60 people, most of them from 15 to 18 years old.

"The corpsmen on-the-job training also includes cooking for fellow corpsmen at the center, providing two different kinds of meat, vegetables, a dessert and salads for the salad bar."

"The guys are thinking about clearing the rocks off a small hill behind the baseball diamond to make a 'bunny slope' for skiing in the wintertime," he said.

Mark developed an enthusiasm for skiing when he went with a party of corpsmen to Lost Trails Ski Resort, near Salmon, Idaho, for a ski outing in the Bitterroot Mountain Range on the Continental Divide, among the roughest terrain in the Northwest.

"My mother didn't particularly want me to go to Montana at first, it's a long way off," Mark said. "She is happy now that I'm there and like it so much," he added.

The young Granite City resident is proud of the Trapper Creek Center and his part in its programs.

"At the last evaluation of Job Corps centers, Trapper Creek was the best in the Job Corps service region and the best center in Montana," he announced with pride.

Not only that, Mark said, "The cooks' dorm was rated the top dormitory at the center and the kitchen was the best management area."

"We did a pretty good job," he stated. For a period of time, Mark was president of the Communications Quarters (C.Q.) which handles all telephone and radio communications at the center.

He also served as a wing leader and then as dorm leader before winning the council presidency.

There are four dormitories, he explained, each with four wings, holding 15 men in two of the wings and 12 men in the other two wings.

Many of those who are taking specific training are assigned to the same dormitory, Mark said.

"Every six months, you can get three weeks leave with Job Corps paying your expenses to come home," he advised.

"If you have a good reason, you can come home for a week or 10 days at other times," he noted.

Miss Barber said the leave periods differ depending on the distance of the center from the corpsman's home.

She said the new Job Corps is designed to give maximum training to young men between 16 and 21 years, but a man can be accepted up to two days before his 22nd birthday.

A prospective candidate must have no serious medical problems or a record of serious criminal behavior.

He must have a sincere desire to learn, and also be from a lower income family, she stressed.

The program is especially geared to youths who have not finished high school, but those who have completed high school and have made a sincere and honest effort to get a job and cannot find one would benefit by vocational training, also will be considered, Miss Barber said.

She reported among the new programs is an extension center in Minneapolis, Minn., which specializes in training airlines and railroad clerks and placing them in govt. paying jobs.

Another new Job Corps center is scheduled to open this fall in Joliet.

Currently, there are 60 Job Corps centers located in 31 states and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

The centers are authorized by Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) and provide intensive programs of education, vocational training, work experience and counseling on a residential or nonresidential basis.

The facilities, programs and the vocational courses are available for training youth and adults who are out of work or school and who need additional skills to secure, and hold meaningful employment. Miss Barber said.

Job Corps currently operates three types of centers, the Job Service representative said.

The Civilian Conservation Centers (CCC's) — residential centers for about 200 enrollees located in national parks and other public lands owned by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (Forest Service) or the U.S. Department of the Interior and managed by these agencies for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Contract Centers — training centers for 200 to 2,000 trainees operated under contracts with state or local government agencies, private nonprofit agencies or profit-making organizations selected through competition.

Extension Centers — offering advanced training at the Marine Cooks and Stewards Union Center in Santa Rosa, Calif., and the BRAC Minneapolis Center, operated by the Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks.

Some of the centers are co-educational, but most are assigned to men or women.

Miss Barber suggested anyone interested in learning more about the Job Corps program to contact her, or ask for a Job Corps Screener at 451-5756, or visit the Illinois Job Service Office, 1820 Cleveland Blvd., Granite City.

Mark also is encouraging anyone interested in the Job Corps to find out more about the program.

"It's working for me and I am talking to a couple of my friends about going in while I'm home," he said.

Before joining Job Corps and going to Trapper Creek, Mark attended Maryville Grade School, Griggby Junior High and North High School.

After a while, he found formal schooling wasn't his bag and he dropped out. But he discussed it's hard to start over again and even harder to get a steady job.

"I've passed the center GED test and all I have to do is complete the Social Studies course to get my Montana State GED," Mark commented.

He also is 80 percent through the cooking and baking course at Trapper Creek.

"You never know what it may lead to," Mark said of his training at the Montana center.

"One guy turned out to be so good at cooking and baking, they sent him to a famous school for chefs and he is now in France. Can you believe that?," he said.

Mark's attitude is positive and he'll make it. Everyone agrees on that point.

"The key is whether the complainants are satisfied," Schaub said. "We have inspectors in Granite City today who will verify the facts and learn what assurances can be given of future procedures. After their visit today is completed, we will be in a better position to determine whether a hearing is needed."

Karandjeff has invited citizens to view Sunset Hill Cemetery and has cited replacement of vandalized moving equipment and the hiring of new maintenance staff members.

Inspectors in mid-June and at least one later inspection was made, Kavanaugh said.

He added, "Since trusts are involved in operation of the cemetery, it is our responsibility to determine what is happening."

Bill Schaub, an aide to Dr. Bakalis at the State Capitol in Springfield, said late this morning he doesn't believe the hearing has been officially granted, but that it is conceivable by this afternoon.

not be revoked. Acting to represent perpetual care trusts, he set the hearing for the City Hall in Granite City at 7 p.m. Sept. 26. Sunset Hill is in Edwardsville Township and serves a wide area.

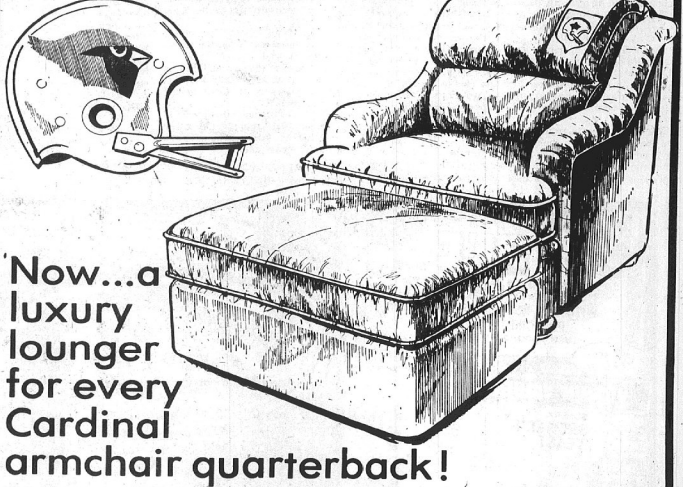

"The hearing is to determine what conditions exist at the cemetery and whether sufficient improvements have been made. There have been four written complaints during recent months," he related.

An inspection was made by two field

New sandwich contracts

After a lengthy discussion Tuesday evening, the Madison Board of Education awarded new sandwich contracts for Madison High School.

At an earlier meeting, a contract to furnish all sandwiches was awarded, regardless of price, to Landshire Food Systems of Belleville.

According to Superintendent John Patchett, this was done because the board originally planned to buy sandwiches for only one month. Then the cooks at MHS would make the sandwiches.

However, due to remodeling of the MHS kitchen, the school will continue to buy sandwiches for the next several months, perhaps the rest of the school year, and then make sandwiches next year. The board reviewed the prices and contents of several sandwiches submitted by Landshire and Open Kitchens of Madison.

Landshire received the contract to supply poorboy and barbecue beef sandwiches. Open Kitchens will supply hamburgers, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, pizza burgers and ham and cheese sandwiches.

Two parents were present and expressed their concern to the board over the recent disturbances at Madison High School.

Members of the board thanked the two parents for their concern and assured them measures are being taken to avoid future problems. The board will hold student discipline hearings next week.

In personnel action, Larry Moebly's resignation as Blair School custodian was accepted. Moebly is taking a job in industry.

Leo Holman, 1224 Logan St., was hired as a custodian at Blair School.

Arnette Terrell was hired as an aide at MHS. Discussion on hiring an aide at Harris School was tabled.

A discussion on the MHS basketball coaching and other coaching staffs was held, but no action was taken.

Man, 43, faces assault charge

Clyde Holliday, 43, who gave police his address as "his car," was arrested at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday while asleep in the vehicle.

Holliday was charged with assault on a complaint signed by Larry Warden, 1718 Chestnut St., who alleged the man came to his home and made threats of physical harm to Warden and his wife.

Holliday was released on payment of $35 cash bond.

Madison Council overrules zoning board, okays permits

By MICK STRANGE

The Madison City Council overruled the Madison Zoning Board Tuesday night, voting approval of two special use permits which the zoning board had denied.

Approximately 15 persons living in the neighborhood of the two proposed businesses — a 7-Eleven store at 1858 Edwardsville Road and an ice cream parlor at 1707 Edwardsville Road — attended the council session to object to the stores at those locations.

Some of the residents alleged construction of the 7-Eleven store would attract undesirable persons to the area and others maintained the operation of the ice cream parlor would interfere with students at Harris School which is located nearby.

The council voted 7 to 0 to approve the special use permits. Alderman Ronald Grzywacz abstained in the voting, as did William Gushleff, a newly appointed alderman who until his appointment was chairman of the Zoning Board.

The tenth council member, Christ Costof, was absent. Grzywacz said he abstained as he was not sure about the merits of either project.

Jay Greer who intends to operate the ice cream parlor said that there would be only two football tables in the building which he would buy and own. He also said he would have one pinball machine, but had not decided from what company he would rent the pinball machine.

Alex A. Schenboller, 1807 Sixth St., a member of the Zoning Board resigned Tuesday, saying simply, "I have been on the board too long."

The board now has two vacancies, Gushleff and Schenboller. Mayor Mike Sasyk informed the council that a tentative agreement has been reached with Cain Steel in the Maeris Industrial Park for a railroad spur which is needed for proposed expansion of the facilities.

The council approved a building permit in the amount of $11,000 for construction of a 31 foot by 62 foot storage building at Quad-City Roofing, 800 State St.

Mayor Sasyk reported that drawings from the General Design Co. of Greenville for a new shopping center will be available for council inspection in ten days to two weeks.

The purchase of one unmarked police car from low bidder B. E. Hootz, $25,000, plus trade and ordered two marked police cars from Bo Beckman, low bidder at $9,599 with two cars in trade.

A building permit was granted to Herman Odell, 1414 Second St., to restore a metal building damaged by fire to its original condition at a cost of $4,000.

Woman abducted, robbed

Granite City police are investigating reports of a Cahokia woman who said a man about 25 years old asked her for directions to an East St. Louis restaurant as she stood on the parking lot of Kozyak's Grocery store on Nameoki Road, and then abducted and tried to molest her. She said he also robbed her. The victim said she got into the man's car and was giving him directions as he drove, and the man drove by Horseshoe Lake and attempted to molest her there.

She said a police car stopped and inquired if there were problems, but she was afraid to answer for fear the man would harm her.

After the policeman left, the man took her wallet and $20 cash, $150 worth of food stamps, her checkbook and a credit card, she told officers.

MOTHER, SON IN CRASH

Mrs. Martha Hendrickson, 23, of 4140 Division St., and her son, Monte, age 3, were examined at St. Elizabeth Hospital after their auto swerved to avoid a bicycle and struck the median divider on Nameoki Road near East 23rd Street Monday. The mother suffered a bump to the back of her head and the boy had no visible injuries, but was checked by doctors. Both were released.

MR. AND MRS. FRED I. FOX JR. They exchanged wedding vows at Calvary Baptist Church. Formerly Miss Brenda L. Smith, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior E. Smith, 2905 Emzee St.

Brenda Smith becomes Mrs. Fred I. Fox Jr.

Miss Brenda L. Smith, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior E. Smith, 2905 Emzee St., and Fred I. Fox Jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Fox Sr., 2577 Lynch Ave., were united in marriage on Aug. 18, at Calvary Baptist Church.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Al Slayter and the Rev. Kenneth Miller, at 7:30 in the evening. Burning tapers in branch candelabra illuminated the sanctuary and the couple repeated their vows in a white arch, entwined with summer flowers and greenery.

Organist Barbara Glowacki accompanied soloists Debbie Dye and Janet Fox, cousins of the groom. Nuptial selections included, "Time In A Bottle," "Romeo and Juliet," "If," "We've Only Just Begun," "Love Story," "Sunrise, Sunset" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length white gown designed with an Empire bodice featuring a sheer yoke applied with Venice lace motifs accented with seed pearls, and a high lace collar.

The long slender sleeves formed points over the wrists and the semi-trail skirt was fashioned with an attached chapel train marked at the back with a bow.

A lace and pearl camelot headpiece secured a chapel length veil of bridal illusion edged with daisy applique. She held a colonial bouquet of daisies, carnations and baby's breath.

Maid of honor Miss Betty Komadina chose a formal length accordion pleated dress created with a halter style bodice and complemented with a matching sheer cape in pink polyester.

The bridesmaids, Jackie Chapline and Chris Wilkinson were attired in identical gowns in a pastel blue and cinnamon color.

They carried colonial arrangements of daisies and carnations in hues to match their gowns and wore the same color carnations in their hair. Flower girls were Sherry and Wendy Gill, cousins of the groom. They were dressed in hoop skirted frocks with a lace overlay and fashioned with square necklines and puff sleeves. One was in yellow and the other girl was in blue. Both carried baskets of yellow roses, daisies and carnations.

Danny Hearn attended the groom as best man. Mark Britton, Steve Bivens, Joe Young, Gary Mouser, Dale Feltmeyer and Scott Winters, a cousin of the bride, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Gary Mouser and Dale Feltmeyer also served as candlelighters. A reception was held in the church hall immediately following the ceremony, and the rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Barrel Restaurant.

The groom's sister, Sandy Fox, presided over the guest book. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith appeared in a full open blue dress made with a V-neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt which fell softly from the Empire waistline.

The groom's mother chose a coral knit gown fashioned with a lace bodice and accented with a pleated skirt. Both wore corsages of yellow roses, baby's breath and carnations, daisies.

A 1977 graduate of Granite City High School North, the groom is now employed at A. O. Smith Corp. The bride was graduated from South High School in 1977. They are residing in Granite City.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Nadine Sinkler of Effingham, Ill., the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Kenny J. Beecher City, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fox, Jackson, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. William Gill and Wendy and Sherry of Grafton, Ill.

Yard clutter target of Venice officials

Yard and street clutter from circulars and unsolicited newspapers was criticized last week at a Venice City Council meeting. Soggy or sun-hardened rolls of paper were assailed as creating problems for residents.

"If they would at least put them on the porch, it wouldn't clutter our town as badly," Mayor William M. Ebersold commented.

"Papers clutter the area and could cause serious problems with the sewers, particularly those with plastic covers. We're just trying to keep our city as clean as we can."

"There should be a little discretion in these deliveries. Just a couple of weeks ago, 25 papers were left at an office," the mayor added.

Others have said that yard litter — of periodicals whose delivery cannot be temporarily halted during vacations — can create a burglary hazard by indication one is home.

Two Missouri residents and a man from Colorado were arrested and charged with theft and criminal damage to property after an incident occurred Wednesday morning in the parking area at Sambo's Restaurant, 3995 Nameki Road.

Those booked on one count each of theft and criminal damage to property were Richard A. Blackburne, 22, of Colorado Springs, Colo., Michael C. Jones, 21, of St. Charles, Mo., and Mary E. E. Jones, 19, of St. Louis.

A fourth person believed with the three apparently was not charged.

Teresa Goodman of the 1700 block of Edison Avenue reported having trouble with two men and two women at the Coral Lounge, with the same people following Miss Goodman and a woman friend along Nameki Road, attempting to get her to pull over the car.

The local woman said she went into Sambo's Restaurant to avoid trouble.

Witnesses told police of seeing people get out of a white over gold Monte Carlo, go over to Miss Goodman's 1966 Oldsmobile, take two bottles of champagne from the front seat and smash the rear window of the Olds.

They then left the lot in the Monte Carlo, which had Missouri license plates, and went south on Nameki Road. Three Granite City residents and a Cody, Wyo., man reported seeing the incident.

An officer noticed the Monte Carlo traveling south on Nameki Road and said the driver of a green sports car, behind the auto, appeared to be motoring to him.

A few seconds later a radio dispatch alerted the officer to the incident at Sambo's and he gave chase. He noted that four people appeared to be in the vehicle.

The gold and white car turned west on East 23rd Street to Monroe Street, then south on Monroe, where the squad car passed the sports car.

The Missouri vehicle turned west on 21st Street and then north on Lee Avenue. The officer halted the auto at 22nd Street.

It was alleged a bottle of champagne was found beneath the driver's seat.

A Granite City man driving the sports car said he was pulling into Sambo's lot when his vehicle was almost struck by the Monte Carlo.

At the same time, he heard someone yell to get the license of the other vehicle. He then began following the Missouri car until he was passed by the police car.

All three were released Wednesday on payment of $200 cash bond each.

He was found by police about 5:45 a.m. inside his car, which was parked in Forest Park, St. Louis, and is believed to have died of a heart attack. An inquest will be conducted in St. Louis to determine the cause of death.

Mr. Bogosian resided here 27 years prior to moving to St. Louis. He was working as a manager of the furniture department at Famous-Barr Co., where he had 15 years of service.

Autumn plans made by Lake School parents

The first meeting of the 1978-79 school year at Lake School was called to order by Mrs. Louise Ware, president, who then led the pledge to the flag, and the PTA prayer was read by Mrs. Faye Hester. Mrs. Ware welcomed those attending and introduced the other officers, Mrs. Paula Turpenoff, vice-president, Mrs. Hester, secretary, and Mrs. Shirley Strain, treasurer.

Following minutes from the May meeting and the treasurer's report, Mrs. Ware introduced her committee chairmen, who were asked to give any reports when introduced. Mrs. Ann Siebert, who along with Mrs. Alma Reynolds is membership chairman, noted that 51 had become members prior to the meeting. October is PTA membership month, and many more are expected to be enrolled then.

Mrs. Turpenoff announced, as chairman of the program committee, that the October topic will be child abuse. It will be presented by Mrs. Ralph Hausmann, director of social service at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Mrs. Siebert, who along with David Johnson is chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that the school's annual candy sale has ended. The candy will be delivered on Oct. 13. Many prizes will be awarded to the children who sold candy; the presentation will be the night of the 1978 open house, Nov. 15.

A Halloween carnival will be held once again this year, to be chaired by Mrs. Turpenoff, Mrs. Phyllis Warford and Mrs. Strain. This will be on Friday, Oct. 27, from 7 to 9 p.m. The largest budget ever proposed by Lake's PTA was presented to the members and approved. Mrs. Ware introduced Edward Gowa, principal, who in turn introduced the staff of Lake School. Sixteen of the school's 26 teachers were present and each was given a token of appreciation from the PTA by children of the various classes.

After Mrs. Helen Schmisser, learning center teacher, was introduced, she called last year's learning center volunteers to the front. She then presented each with a VIP pin, symbolizing "very important parent." The volunteers were Mrs. Siebert, Mrs. Hester, Mrs. Warford, Mrs. Mary Keel, Mrs. Betty Goforth, Mrs. Strain, Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Mary Hayes and Mrs. Brenda Wilbers. Refreshments next were served by the PTA executive board.

Martha Schrieber is shower honoree

A wedding shower honoring Miss Martha Schrieber was given during the weekend at the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Max Schrieber.

Miss Schrieber will be married Oct. 6, to Private First Class Wendell Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Morgan of Gentry, Ark.

The dining area was decorated with streamers and wedding bells. Refreshments of cake trimmed with red roses and white bells, jello, punch, and nut cups filled with candy, were served to guests after several games.

Hostesses for the shower were the bride's mother Ruth Schrieber, the bride's sisters Frances Schrieber and Mary Gillison, and sister-in-law Alice Schrieber.

The honoree was presented many gifts by family and friends. Arrested on school grounds

Rick A. Nelson, 17, of 2159 Monroe St., was arrested at the rear of Granite City High School South at 8:25 a.m. Tuesday, when an officer reported seeing the youth walking across the school field.

Nelson had been warned earlier not to be on school property while classes were in session, police said. He was charged with criminal trespass to property.

$15,000 bond in disturbance

Johnny Carr, 23, of 1602 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged Monday with aggravated assault and battery from a Kirkpatrick Homes disturbance Friday morning in which Clint Wade, 17, of 108 Kirkpatrick Homes was cut several times with a knife.

Carr also faces a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor after the mother of a 15-year-old signed a complaint against him for allegedly being with his daughter. The girl has been taken to the Madison County Juvenile Detention Home at Edwardsville. Carr was arrested Friday morning after several persons alleged he used a butcher knife to cut Wade's stomach, chest and breast during an argument over a girl. He allegedly asked the girl while he was cutting Wade, "Are you going back with him or should I stab him?" The knife allegedly was held against the back of Wade's neck, but the girl screamed and Carr left the scene, warning everyone not to talk about the incident, it was alleged. He was arrested Friday evening, but was held during the weekend investigation and the filing of charges. His bond was set at $15,000 and he was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Woman beaten, robbed in GC home invasion

Robyn Kimbro, 20, of Revere's Route, was severely beaten by two intruders in her home Monday. They robbed her after tying her hands behind her and leaving her with a sheet over her head in the bathroom of her home.

The victim awoke to find two men in the bedroom. When she screamed, one struck her on the head with an object. She continued to struggle. The men then struck her several times and pulled the bedsheet over her head.

One man momentarily choked her, and her left cheek was bitten through the sheet, teeth marks being left on the cheek.

She was pulled to her feet and was taken to the bathroom, where she was ordered to sit on the floor. Her hands were tied behind her with a scarf and the sheet was fastened over her head.

The men took about $70 from her purse and left the home. The victim remained tied about 30 to 40 minutes until her former husband came to find out why her telephone line was busy.

He found the telephone cord had been taken.

Mrs. Kimbro suffered a blackened right eye, a bruise to her right cheek, cuts to her lips and three cuts to her scalp. There were finger marks on her throat, red marks around both wrists and the bite marks on her cheek.

Sutures were required to close two of the cuts to her scalp.

The men took about $70 from

Arch was only one of many memorial ideas

An exhibit of architectural drawings entitled "The Architectural Competition for the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial, 1877," can be viewed in the rotunda of the Old Courthouse at 11 N. 4th St. through Sept. 30.

The center of the rotunda exhibit highlights Eero Saarinen's first and second-stage Gateway Arch entries.

In his first stage concept, the Arch was rectangular rather than triangular. It was described by the judges as "an imaginative and exciting monumental arch — an abstract form peculiarly happy in its symbolism."

His second stage entry, the Gateway Arch as it was later built, was the unanimous choice of the judges and brought him world acclaim as an architect.

There were 172 entries in the architectural competition, and all parts of the country. They showed a wide variety of ideas for memorials to Thomas Jefferson and to the pioneers who went through St. Louis to settle the West.

Designs range from a water bridge over the Mississippi River to a gigantic statue of Thomas Jefferson pointing westward. Several designs are more intellectual, trying to put into concrete form Jefferson's ideal of individualism, freedom and democracy.

Architects Collaborative of Cambridge, Mass., submitted a design to "give meaning and direction to a rapidly changing world." It included an arched foot-bridge across the river to an Illinois entertainment and recreational area. The two arches supporting the foot-bridge, to be built in the river, are small-scale images of the present Saarinen arch.

The courthouse rotunda wall is surrounded by 23 of the 27 proposals for use of the riverfront that were considered in the competition.

Most of these are open-space, highlighted by structures. They range from a proposal by Bernard Jamme and Oliver Ward of New Jersey for a world's fair style plan of architecture, utilizing several museums and complexes for adult and children activities, to that by William Brager, Caleb Horstbush and George Lewis of New York, introducing a monument of beauty and symbolism — with a terrace museum on high ground and a grouping of historical buildings at the levee, a third-prize, second-stage recipient.

The Jefferson National Expansion Memorial Association sponsored the architectural competition in 1947 to develop the historic site and also to resurrect St. Louis' relationship with the riverfront. The competition called for a memorial to Jefferson and the historic nature of the riverfront, preservation of the Old Courthouse and Old Cathedral, a Museum of Westward Expansion, a living memorial to Jefferson's vision of ever-greater opportunities for men of all races and creeds to improve themselves and their lot under democracy, and plans for recreational activities and facilities on the site.

There was to be a $40,000 award for the winner of the competition, $20,000 for second place, $10,000 for third place and $2,500 for each of the two honorable mentions. In the 1938 competition for design of the Old Courthouse, the winner received $100.

First stage of the competition selected five designers to participate in the second stage, eliminating all the others. Imagination, vision, power of analysis, and practical ingenuity were considered, and the selection was based chiefly on breadth of conception rather than on a particular detail. In September 1947, the judges, seven nationally-known architects, chose five to partici-

The second stage emphasized the design of a monument, the landscaping of the site, and a museum. The memorial was to be conceived as the striking element, not only to be seen from a distance, but as a notable structure to be remembered and talked about. It was to attract "the interest of the multitude and that of the connoisseur."

In February 1948, the judges met to consider the second stage entries and unanimously chose Saarinen's "imaginative and exciting monumental arch."

"The entire concept, full of exciting possibilities for actual achievement, is a work of genius. The memorial structure is of that high order which will rank it among the nation's greatest monuments."

Visitors to the exhibit, open daily from 8:30 to 4:30, are offered an opportunity to judge the competition.

They are being asked to select the top three of the 27 entries, mark a ballot accordingly, and place it in a ballot box in the corridor of the last wing of the first floor of the Old Courthouse.

Denies 'vendetta' in pension fight

George Smolich, president of the Granite City Firemen's Pension Board, emphasized this week that the board is not initiating "a vendetta" against former Assistant Fire Chief Charles Hileman in attempts to deny his pension.

Smolich said a news article which charges him as saying they "plan to pursue every legal means" to stop the pension was misleading. "We are only exercising our responsibility as trustees and trying to be fair. We are only seeking the court's opinion as to what's fair," Smolich concluded.

2 FACE THEFT CHARGE
Everett Timmy Hughes, 20, of 2901 Claude Drive, and Virgil B. Jett Jr., 20, of 2820 Namecki Drive, were arrested in the 3000 block of Namecki Drive at 12:05 a.m. Tuesday and were charged with theft for allegedly siphoning gasoline from a car.

Charles Levy, 3023 Namecki Drive, told police two men were near his car and appeared to be siphoning gasoline. Officers responded and allegedly finding two at Levy's car with a hose in the car's gasoline tank.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., Sept. 21, 1978 Page 12

Arrest after disturbance

Danny L. McCallister, 22, of 1851 Third St., Madison, had two charges filed against him after disturbances Monday afternoon. Police first were called to 22nd Street between Washington and Lee avenues at 4:35 p.m. Monday on the report of a fight.

There was no fighting when officers arrived, but McCallister allegedly was using profanities toward another young man and a crowd was forming around them. He allegedly ignored police requests to stop using the profanities and was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. While being booked at the police station, McCallister allegedly swung a fist at Sgt. Dennis Joyce and a charge of aggravated assault was added against McCallister. Police noted force was required to put him in a jail cell.

He pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was fined $35. Bond on the aggravated assault charge was set at $87 cash after he pleaded innocent to it. He posted the bond and was released.

Tighter air quality rules sought on dust

A major air pollution research study released yesterday indicates that Illinois regulations are not tight enough to meet federal air quality standards for two pollutants in certain areas: suspended particulates (spoil, dust) and sulfur dioxide (gas emitted from certain industrial processes and the burning of coal and oil).

Results of the study encompass the St. Louis metropolitan counties of St. Charles, St. Louis, Jefferson and Franklin in Missouri and Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois.

Cohn reception this Saturday

Stephen Clark, chairman of the Young Republican Organization of Illinois, announced today that Congressman Jack Kemp, a New York Republican, will be the featured guest at a reception Saturday, Sept. 23, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Holiday Inn on Rt. 70 and 157 in Collinsville.

The reception is for the purpose of honoring a candidate for and the intersection of I-270 and I-70 in Missouri.

Three areas along the Mississippi River would also still exceed sulfur dioxide standards. These include Wood River and Lemay, plus an area bounded by Madison and Cahokia in Illinois and a large portion of downtown St. Louis.

The report points out that sources other than industry also are contributing significantly to high dust levels.

Unpaved roads and parking lots, construction activity, agricultural tilling and other human activity are responsible for a major portion of the dust found in the air except around major industries.

YOUNG SCHOOL VISITOR PUNISHED BY PARENTS

Neither Granite City police nor school authorities plan to initiate action against an 8-year-old boy who broke into Wilson School during the weekend and stole a box of bandages and a few nickels from a soft-drink vending machine in the lounge.

Initially, police recommended that the issue be handled by school authorities. School officials said they are satisfied with the actions the parents were taking in the matter and won't seek additional punishment.

Suspect arson

Arson is believed to have been the cause of a fire which caused an estimated $100 damage to a storage shed behind Stopkotte's Roller Rink, 1823 Cleveland Blvd., at 8:30 p.m. Monday.

Two boys on bicycles asked Robert Stopkotte for a cigarette and a light and he said he had neither. They left, but were seen at the rear of the rink again in a suspicious manner a few moments later.

When they left, Stopkotte discovered a fire had been started beside the shed. The Granite City Fire Department extinguished the flames.

Tools, jewelry, tires stolen

Items valued at several hundred dollars were stolen from the home of Don Woodward, 2514 W. 23rd St., between 10 a.m. and 2:35 p.m. Monday. A window was broken and believed used to gain entry. Several wrenches and sockets were found beneath the broken window.

Missing are about $500 worth of tools, a $100 radio, 20 trading stamp books worth $120, two truck tires and a jewelry box containing a diamond ring and military medals.

The fuse box also was stolen from the front of the house, disconnecting electricity to the home.

Mall name reflects Dr. Morris' role in expanding educational opportunity

In recognition of the accomplishments and contributions of Dr. Delyte W. Morris, former president of Southern Illinois University, the mall in the academic core area of the SIUE at Edwardsville campus has been designated the "Delyte W. Morris Quadrangle."

The designation was approved last week by the university trustees at their September meeting, held on the Carbondale campus.

Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of SIUE, said, "Dr. Morris' vision and creative intelligence concerning higher education needs of the region, state and nation are exemplified in the excellence and foresight of the design of the campus."

"Dr. Morris took a leading and continuing role in insuring that excellent design values, harmonizing aesthetic pleasure with a concern for human beings, were asserted in the building of the campus," Dr. Shaw said.

The university president emphasized that Dr. Morris' role was so central that no single building or monument could express adequate appreciation.

"However, since the central mall is the focal point of the university as a place—and is intended always to be so—the designation of this area as the 'Delyte W. Morris Quadrangle' could properly be regarded as a way of keeping his name alive as an inspiration to all who come after him," Dr. Shaw said.

"Throughout his long and distinguished career as president of SIUE, Dr. Morris strove to improve the lives of the people of central and southern Illinois through the university he led," Dr. Shaw said.

"It is through his efforts that many thousands of people have had, and will have, opportunities to extend their education and enrich their lives."

$175 BURGLARY LOOT

About $100 worth of change, $60 in trading stamps, a $15 stethoscope and a pillow case were stolen during a burglary at the home of Michael Weber, 2543 E. 28th St., early this week. A window in a door was broken to gain entry. The kitchen and two bedrooms were ransacked.

Library trustees attend workshop

Mrs. Joan Yetter and Mrs. Ruth Lamb, trustees of the Granite City Public Library, took part in a workshop for library trustees held during the weekend in Mt. Vernon.

It was designed for and by trustees and implemented by the Illinois Library Trustees Association of the Illinois Library Association.

Purpose of the workshop was to provide library trustees with increased leadership skills and governance information. The time frame was designed so that the typical trustee, who is not compensated for his library contribution and who usually has a full-time occupation, would be able to attend.

Mrs. Lamb has been a library trustee for two years. Mrs. Yetter has been a trustee for one year and is the secretary of the board. Robert J. Stack is director of the Granite City Public Library.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

TILL-TAPPING REPORTED

An undetermined amount of money was stolen from a cash register at the Reese Drug Store in Bellemore Village Shopping Center early this week. An employee said a black man purchased a package of cigarettes and, while the register was opened, asked for something else the clerk had to turn and stoop to reach. He then paid for the second item and left. The clerk then discovered some bills had been taken from the register while her back was turned.

Rites conducted for Wesley Dudley, 81

He died Sunday, Sept. 17, at Jewish Hospital, St. Louis. Burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Mr. Dudley was secretary to the Musicians Local for 14 years, and led his own band for 37 years.

JFK annual dance Oct. 15 at St. Mary's

On Sunday, Oct. 15, the annual John F. Kennedy Memorial champagne dance will be held at St. Mary's Church Hall, 1021 N. Madison. Dancing will begin at 7 p.m., with hors d'oeuvres and refreshments offered.

"The price is $25 per person for a very special evening of dancing and good conversation," Christ Costoff, Madison County Democratic chairman, said today. "Please make reservations as soon as possible."

Checks are to be payable to JFK Champagne Dance, C-O Secretary-Treasurer, Madison County Democratic Committee, 1506 Johnson Road, Granite City 62040.

Joys of boating and cooking

There's nothing wrong with a roaring outdoor fire, but why cook over one? Life outdoors should be enjoyable, and even cooking can be a pleasant experience. There are many different kinds of portable stoves available, and most of them suit the special needs of boat campers. Here are some tips to help you select the right cooking equipment. Storage aboard a boat is always critical, so the stove must be as compact and self-contained as possible. It should have a protective case and sturdy carrying handle. Also, buy a folding stand for cooking on shore. If you intend to cook aboard the boat, select a stove which can be mounted to the gunwale or other interior support. A gimbaled stove is one that allows the heating units and the pans to remain level despite wave action or attitude of the boat. This reduces the chance for accidental spillage.

Gimbaled stoves are more expensive, but worth the extra cost if you plan to do a lot of on-board cooking. Another kind of stove uses bottled propane gas and is ideal for permanent mounting in a boat. The only drawback is the size of the gas tank, although some operate from small cylinder tanks. Regular marine stoves, such as those long used in saltwater craft, burn alcohol.

HIDDEN TERRORS: By A.J. Langguth; Pantheon; 336 Pages; $10. This purports to be the truth about U.S. manipulation of governments in Latin America—particularly Brazil, Uruguay, Chile and Argentina. People in the CIA won't like it; neither will lots of others. Left-wingers will say it justifies their criticism of American behavior among neighbors.

'Message' movie filled with anger
"Who'll Stop The Rain?" (R) — The most recent in the deluge of movies dealing with the Vietnam war. It is based on an award-winning novel called "Dog Soldiers." But the movie may be not as likely to win any such plaudits as went to the novel. This is 90 minutes of undiminished anger, even hatred, over the war. There are a couple of villains and a dirty cop, but somehow the whole thing just doesn't come off as it should have with "Dog Soldiers" to work from.

Fiber fine, but . . .

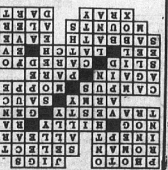

Is there any danger of taking too much fiber or bran in the diet? — Mr. W.Y.
Dear Mr. W.Y., Yes, wheat bran contains phytic acid which can render zinc, calcium and iron ions insoluble, and could lead to deficiencies of these minerals.

Christmas vocal music rehearsals

The Community Choral Society at SIUE (682-3590) will begin rehearsals next week for its 1978 Christmas program. The first rehearsal is set for Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 1402 of the Peck Classroom Building.

The group will again be under the direction of choral conductor Leonard Van Camp, professor in the department of music at SIUE, according to Phil Calcagno, president of the Society. The four-voice choral group of more than 100 members is made up of people from surrounding communities, including St. Louis, as well as university students.

"There are no auditions, and membership is open to anyone who has an interest in singing," Calcagno said. "Members pay a nominal membership fee, purchase their own music and furnish their own concert attire."

This year, the choral group will perform Ralph Vaughan Williams' "Fantasia on Christmas Carols" and Robert Shaw's and Robert Russell Bennett's "Many Moods of Christmas" for performance Dec. 10.

In the winter, the Society will perform Gustav Mahler's "Symphony No. 2, The Resurrection" with the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra. The season will end with Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

Head start enrollment to conclude

The Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission is reminding parents that the full year Head Start program's enrollment will be held through tomorrow for eligible children of the Madison and Venice school districts.

Interested parents may enroll their children at the Well Baby Clinic at 145 Madison Ave., Madison, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Parents are to bring the child's birth certificate and health record to registration. Public aid recipients should also bring their medical card.

Head Start is a pre-kindergarten preparatory program for culturally deprived, disadvantaged and disabled children.

Program eligibility is normally limited to low-income families, except in cases of children with specific problems or disabilities.

The Madison and Venice area program includes children who will be five years of age by Dec. 31, 1979.

RENTAL ASSISTANCE IN ST. CLAIR COUNTY

An additional 251 units of adequate housing throughout East St. Louis and St. Clair County will be made available in the near future through the cooperative efforts of the federal government and area housing authorities, U.S. Rep. Melvin Price (Dem., 23rd Illinois) announced Tuesday. Price said the St. Clair County Housing Authority will receive $274,000 from the Department of Housing and Urban Development to help low-income persons and families pay rent for 110 units of housing. The East St. Louis Housing Authority will be able to provide city residents with assistance in renting 141 dwellings with the $399,648 it is to receive from HUD.

Hike state scholarship maximum aid

Governor James R. Thompson has approved a $100 increase in the state's maximum scholarship grant for Illinois college students.

The governor's action in approving House Bill 2963 boosts the maximum award from $1,550 to $1,650 for eligible students who receive the scholarship grants from the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, effective immediately.

"Those who will benefit from this increase are students attending private colleges and universities, because tuition and fees at our public institutions are below the old maximum," Thompson said Tuesday.

"These grants are based entirely on the financial need of students who are Illinois residents, so it helps those who need help the most," the governor said. "The grants are aimed at giving all students a choice among our colleges and universities."

Total cost of the $100 increase will be $2.7 million for about 95,000 students who can qualify for the grant.

Part-time students may qualify for half the maximum grant award for full-time students, or $825.

The funds are included in the Board of Higher Education's allocation of the governor's 1978-79 fiscal year budget.

Sponsors of House Bill 2963 are Representative Michael I. Brady, Chicago, and Senator Lefroy W. Lemke, Chicago.

In a related action, Thompson vetoed Senate Bill 1555, which would have established an advance payment procedure for the higher education scholarship grants, and would have limited the salary of the executive director of the Scholarship Commission.

The governor acknowledged that the Scholarship Commission "must improve administration of its programs to be able to better serve the people and institutions with which it deals."

Thompson said the advance payments would have been only a temporary solution to the cash flow problems the commission has caused some institutions, as a result of the commission's late scholarship payments.

In a letter to Dr. Curtis Tarr, chairman of the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, Thompson called for an end to delays and confusion caused by the commission's existing procedures.

"Major improvements are needed," Thompson said. He urged the Scholarship Commission to "take the mystery out of who can qualify for student financial assistance."

He also called for a more "student-oriented approach" to let them know their rights and responsibilities under the aid program.

Thompson asked Dr. Tarr to report to him by Dec. 15 on what the commission is doing to improve its operations.

Pinocchio and Oliver planned

The Masquers, an area theatrical group, has chosen two major productions for the 1978-79 season.

"Pinocchio" will be presented this fall and "Oliver" during the spring.

Two charged

Two men found arguing at the intersection of Niedringhaus and Edison avenues at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday, allegedly refused to resolve their differences when police arrived and both were taken into custody.

Jimmy R. Smith, 28, of the YMCA, 24, of 2349 Grand Ave., struck him on the right arm with a hammer while the pair was arguing over a truck and construction materials inside the vehicle.

The men are partners in subcontracting work. Lamb was charged with battery on a complaint signed by Smith. Smith was charged with disorderly conduct.

Both were released a short time later on payment of $35 cash bond.

BREAK INTO CAMPER

Furnishings valued at more than $600 were stolen from the camper of Lee Turnbough, 2411 Missouri Ave., while parked behind a home in the 1700 block of Edison Avenue, was reported Monday. Taken during the previous month were a $389 stove and oven, $119 refrigerator, a table, glassware and several rods and reels.

Revamp all taxes, not some—Bakalis

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael J. Bakalis during the weekend listed the "essential eight principles" which would guide him as governor in proposing or supporting any programs for taxing and spending limitations.

Speaking before the Illinois Municipal League in Chicago, Bakalis denounced Governor

James Thompson's tax referendum as "proposition zero," saying that "it says nothing, means nothing and will do nothing for taxpayers."

Bakalis told the Municipal League that proposals for tax and spending limitations will receive his support if they are consistent with the following general principles:

1. Any consideration of taxing and spending limitation through statute or constitutional amendment should proceed only in conjunction with comprehensive consideration of overall state and local tax reform. The approach should consider income taxes, sales taxes, property taxes and user taxes.

2. The state should not create tight lids on local property taxes unless it is willing to provide adequate financial help to local governments. Some form of expanded aid to localities must accompany local tax limitations.

3. Any limitation proposals must guard against fiscal centralization, which "will inevitably bring about extensive control over local governments."

4. "Truth-in-taxation" mechanisms must be built into any taxing and spending limits. Under such safeguard, any proposed increases in state or local taxes must be acted on by the responsible government unit only after public hearings have been held.

5. Any taxing and spending limitation proposal should be accompanied by tax relief measures, preferably through the "circuit-breaker" concept.

6. Along with limitations on taxing and spending, there should be specific restrictions on the extent to which government budgets can grow in a given year.

7. Any taxing and spending limitations should include the provision that state and federal mandates be funded at the level of origin.

8. Limitations must not jeopardize the concept of majority rule. Attempts must be resisted to substitute for majority rule more stringent requirements, such as two-thirds majorities for enactment of spending and tax increases.

"The time has come," Bakalis said, "for serious discussion of the issue of limitations. We need less talk of meaningless petitions and more talk of meaningful programs."

He urged municipal officials to join with the state government in "a new partnership" which could respond to taxpayers' concerns in a responsible manner.

Government cost a big issue—Burris

Concern over the rising cost of government was expressed here Tuesday by Roland W. Burris, Chicago, Democratic candidate for state comptroller who brought his campaign to this area in a statewide swing that he said was designed to "meet the media."

Burris said he is pursuing three major campaign topics which he believes are essential to proper participation of the comptroller's office in state governmental operation. "First," he said, "is the elimination of waste in government." Secondly is assurance that there will be no increase in taxes, a factor that ties in with the elimination of waste.

"If waste is eliminated, there would be no need of a tax increase," he noted.

Thirdly, Burris said, the comptroller's office should be attentive to the employment picture and do everything it can to encourage new industry which would mean more jobs. He said he plans to visit the Quad-Cities in an active campaign about mid-October.

The employment situation "has a direct bearing on the state's revenue."

Burris was in Granite City Tuesday and went from here to Alton, Edwardsville and Collinsville. Tuesday night he attended the Roosevelt dinner sponsored by St. Clair County Democrats at Belleville.

He said he plans to visit the Quad-Cities in an active campaign about mid-October.

The employment situation "has a direct bearing on the state's revenue."

TENANT IS CHARGED

David A. Pinta, 26, of 2520 Parkway Drive, Apt. 13, was charged with battery after an incident at his apartment at 12:15 p.m. Monday. Richard Bieker, 2530 Parkway Drive, Apt. 16, an employee of the apartments, alleged Pinta struck him twice for putting Pinta's son's bicycle in the basement while clearing the halls of the apartment building. Pinta was released after posting $35 cash bond.

Bicyclist hit by car

Dave Hahn, 16, of 2232 Bern Ave., was injured seriously when his bicycle, crossing Route 203 at Maryville Road, was struck by the southbound auto of Sandra Bailey, 38, of 720 East Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, at 4:40 p.m. Monday.

Hahn was thrown from the bicycle on impact and the bike then got caught under a front wheel of the car and was dragged 40 feet before the auto came to a stop. The youth was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for a cut to his head, abrasions to his back, knees, elbows and face, and possible internal injuries and he was transferred to Pinion Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, where his condition was reported satisfactory today.

Drusilla Andrews meeting

The Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the DAR met during the weekend at Charlie's Restaurant with thirteen members and two guests present. Mrs. Emma Schoon, regent, conducted the opening ceremonies and Mrs. Florence Simpson read the monthly message from the President General, NSDAR.

Mrs. Eva Meier, chaplain, formally welcomed Mrs. Marjorie Hilker as a new member. Mrs. Simpson distributed individual copies of the U.S. Constitution and other related material and reminded members that this week is celebrated nationwide as Constitution Week. She also displayed a picture of the signing of the constitution, pointing out various personages, and informed us that many of the clothes worn by the signers are now in the Smithsonian Museum in Washington.

Lyrical Laureates start Sunday

The warm personal music of the Lyrical Laureates of Terry, Mont., will be heard nightly at 7:30, starting Sunday at Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church, 2136 Dewey Ave., it was announced today by the Rev. Eugene Beasley, pastor.

Gary and Donna Laurence have a distinctive harmony for which they are known across the United States and Central America, the minister said.

They are just as likely to be singing at a high school assembly or a city park as they are at a church, the Rev. Beasley noted, adding that young and old alike forget the "communication gap" as they hear the kind of music being played and sung by the two.

The local minister has known Gary and Donna Laurence for several years and personally recommends them and their ministry to be of the "very highest dedication, quality and musicianship."

He invited the general public to attend any of the evening services, scheduled at 7:30 through Oct. 1.

Hodge-Vunovic wedding at Central Christian

Miss Nancy Sue Vunovic, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vunovic, 2913 Dogwood Drive, and Rick Hodge, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodge, 1532 Clark Ave., exchanged wedding vows on Sept. 2, at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

Floral arrangements of roses, carnations, baby's breath and fern decorated the altar, and burning peach color tapers in branch aisle candelabra, accented with smilax garlands, provided the setting for the wedding party's appearance through a towering white bridal arch, covered with greenery.

The Rev. Dennis Rutledge officiated at the 7 o'clock evening double ring ceremony. Nuptial selections included "One Hand, One Heart," "Wedding Prayer" and "Prayer of St. Francis." Organist Miss Cindy Johnson accompanied Mrs. Joseph C. Bilbey, as she sang.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon gown fashioned in an Empire silhouette. The Queen Anne neckline was high in back and low in front and trimmed with re-embroidered Alencon lace motifs, etched with pearls. Her long full sleeves were cuffed and trimmed with lace and the semi-full skirt, bordered with scallop Alencon lace, fell into a full sweep chapel train.

A cap of lace and pearls was secured to a waltz length veil edged with scallop lace and enhanced with lace appliques sprinkled with pearls.

Her husband is an employee of National Lead Co. They are now residing in Caseyville.

A fancy chicken recipe for party

By MARJORIE RICE

Chicken used to be something we reserved for family, reserving more spiffy food for company and special occasions. But with food prices the way they are, chicken is becoming a luxury.

And chicken pictured here is about as spiffy as it can get. Breasts are boned, then simmered a quick 15 or 20 minutes. A gelatin-based glaze dresses them up for a special event. Cut little decorations from olives and parsley if you really want to impress someone.

Buy whole chicken and do the cutting yourself. Serve the breasts for this meal (they're probably the easiest piece of chicken to bone), and save the other parts for barbecue or frying.

The boned chicken breasts are wrapped around a pimiento-stuffed olive filling that adds a tangy flavor. They're served chilled, so make a good dinner party entrée.

The glazing is deceptively easy. Blend the cooking broth with cream thickened with gelatin and spoon it on. You can do all this the day before you plan to serve it.

SPANISH GLAZED CHICKEN

One-third cup (2 oz.) pine nuts
2 tbsps. olive oil
Two-thirds cup finely chopped shallots or scallions
1/2 cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives
3 tbsps. chopped parsley
1 tsp. grated lemon peel
4 large chicken breasts, skinned, halved and boned
1 cup chicken stock
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup heavy cream whole pimiento-stuffed olives
1/2 cup water parsley
cooked asparagus tips
Boston lettuce
Olive Mayonnaise

In large skillet, saute pine nuts in oil until lightly browned. Add one-third cup of the shallots and saute until tender but not browned; stir in chopped olives, chopped parsley and lemon peel.

Place each piece of chicken between two pieces of wax paper and flatten with rolling pin. Place about 1 1/2 tablespoons olive mixture in center of each chicken piece and roll up; secure with wooden picks.

Place in large skillet with remaining one-third cup shallots and the stock. Cover and simmer 15 minutes, turning chicken once. Remove chicken, cool, then cover and chill.

Meanwhile, boil down liquid in skillet until reduced to 1/2 cup. Soften 1 envelope of the gelatin in cream; add to reduced liquid and heat until gelatin dissolves. Remove wooden picks and place chicken breasts on rack over a tray.

Place cream mixture over bowl of ice and stir until it thickens to about the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Spoon over chicken. Chill chicken until glaze sets. Repeat glazing and chilling until all glaze is used. Any glaze left in pan under rack may be reheated and chilled to proper consistency for glazing.

Slice a few pimiento-stuffed olives for garnish. To hold garnish in place, soften remaining envelope of gelatin in 1/2 cup water and heat until dissolved; cool. Dip olive halves and parsley in the gelatin and arrange on chicken. Spoon remaining gelatin over chicken breasts. Chill.

Arrange chicken breasts, asparagus and remaining whole olives in lettuce-lined dish. Serve with Olive Mayonnaise. Serves four to six persons.

VERY STRAWBERRY PIE

2 pints fresh strawberries
Two-thirds cup sugar
2 tbsps. unflavored gelatin
3 tbsps. water
1 tsp. lemon juice
9-inch baked pie shell

Puree 1 pint strawberries in blender. Force through fine sieve to remove seeds. Mix sugar and gelatin in saucepan; stir in water and lemon juice. Stir over low heat until gelatin and sugar dissolve; combine with strawberry puree.

Chill puree mixture until consistency is slightly thicker than unbeaten egg white. Pour half the mixture into pie shell. Arrange remaining pint strawberries in shell; spoon remaining puree mixture on top. Chill pie until set.

Use any type crust you like — but this pie is sensational with this Coconut Meringue Pie Shell. Recipe given below.

COCONUT MERINGUE PIE SHELL

Two-thirds cup flaked coconut
Confectioners' sugar (about 3 tbsps.)
2 egg whites
1/2 tsp. salt
Two-thirds cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp. vanilla

Toss coconut with just enough confectioners' sugar to coat lightly; set aside. Combine egg whites and salt; beat until foamy. Gradually add granulated sugar, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until stiff peaks form.

Fold in vanilla and coconut. Spread over bottom and sides of greased 9-inch pie plate. Bake in 325-degree oven 30 minutes, or until meringue feels dry and firm. Cool before filling.

YOGURT-LIME CHICKEN

1/2 cup plain yogurt
1 tsp. seasoned salt
1/2 tsp. lemon pepper
1/2 tsp. basil, crumbled
1 half breasts of chicken, boned
1/2 cup wheat germ
1/4 cup Tequila
3 tbsps. melted butter

Combine yogurt, seasoned salt, lemon pepper and basil in shallow dish. Roll chicken breasts in mixture to coat, then in wheat germ. Arrange in buttered pan. Bake in 400-degree oven 20 minutes.

Combine tequila and butter and spoon over chicken. Return to oven for 10 to 15 minutes, or until chicken is tender. Makes four servings.

Legal Secretaries' Bosses Night

"Bosses Night" for the Madison County Legal Secretaries Association will take place Tuesday, Oct. 3, at Lockhaven Country Club in Alton.

Theme of the 1978 awards dinner is "One Thousand and One Nights."

Cocktails will be served from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., with a buffet dinner following, according to Mary Lou Harvey, chairman, who is being assisted by Melody Mann, Shelby Ray, Marilyn Morrison, Catherine Hunt, Barbara Jackson and Patti Peck.

A "Boss of the Year" is chosen annually on the basis of service in civic and charitable endeavors, outstanding in law, considerate to employees and congeniality. Virginia Cherry, public relations chairman, advised.

Of equal importance to the association is the selection of a member as "Legal Secretary of the Year."

This award is made for outstanding secretarial ability, service to civic and charitable organizations and service to the national, state and local Legal Secretaries associations.

PARTY PRETTY. Cool poached chicken breasts, glistening with a pretty glaze, make both a cool and highly satisfying meal for guests or family. They're easy to prepare ahead for relaxed entertaining. Serve with fresh vegetables, steamed tender-crisp, along with a bottle of your favorite white wine. Crown the meal with strawberry pie.

Steelers learn tough 6-0 lesson from Vianney

By PETE HAYES

Press-Record Sports Editor

ST. LOUIS — Granite City North's soccer team went to night school here last evening. The Steeler kickers took notes as Vianney, the defending Missouri co-champion, gave lessons in "all-control, passing and overall soccer savvy enroute to a 6-0 whitewashing of North.

The loss dropped North to 3-3 on the season and upped Vianney's record to 8-0.

But North coach Bob Kehoe wasn't disappointed. "I never like to lose," he said. "And you never go into a game with that sort of attitude."

"But against a team like this 'Vianney', you also have to be realistic. They have to be, without a doubt in my mind, the very best high school soccer team I have ever seen."

That goes back to when Kehoe was playing for St. Louis University High in the 1940's. "They have an uncanny ability to know where the other players on the team are," said Kehoe. "But truthfully, we have to have some kind of defensive ability to hold them to two goals in the second half."

Vianney didn't waste any time in getting to the scoreboard. At the 18:51 mark, just over a minute into the first half, Ed Wanner of Vianney spotted a leak in the Steeler defense and slammed the ball past a helpless goalie Tony Pierce for a 1-0 lead for the Golden Griffins. According to Kehoe, that leak in the defense was a glaring error.

"We had a sweeper back behind our last four defenders," said Kehoe. "He's not assigned to any one player, whereas the four defenders mark a man and play him sort of man-to-man."

In this case, one of the defenders left his man, which left another wide open. Vianney's too good a team to make mistakes like that against."

Kehoe was pleased, however, with the play of goalie Pierce. "He made some really good saves," said Kehoe. "He made a few mistakes, but none of them terribly serious."

"Against a team like Vianney, you can play at your very best and still lose. They're just awesome."

Vianney slammed in three more goals in the first half. They were scored by Dan Meagher, Jack Horas and Steve Lux.

Vianney coach Mike Villa said he didn't try to hold the score down, that his club was going 100 percent the whole game. "We didn't try to take it easy," he said. "We knew that Granite City would be a good, fundamentally-sound team. But we also knew that we'd probably have a little too much speed for them."

"But if you go into a game with that attitude of 'taking it easy' on another club, you could wind up losing the game."

Villa was impressed with North's hustle. "They were running just as hard and playing just as hard at the end of the game as at the beginning," he said. "I imagine that they'll beat most of the teams in Illinois they play."

THAT BROUGHT Kehoe to an observation. "Except for a few teams over in Illinois, we have to go all the way to Chicago to play against real strong competition," he said.

"But when we travel right over the river to Missouri, they're a little over our heads. It's an odd position."

Kehoe said he was pleased with the play of Bob Batey, who saw considerable action, after being plagued by a hamstring tear for two weeks. "Bobby is still not at 100 percent, but he's getting close. I thought he did a real fine job against Vianney."

Also in last night's game was Mike Robertson, who sat out the last Steeler game with a knee injury. "He looked pretty good," said Kehoe. "But that injury is still bothering him. He's going to have to have it looked at."

North's next game will be Saturday at home against East St. Louis Assumption. The junior varsity game will at 12 p.m., with the varsity contest starting at about 1:15 p.m. The Stealers had originally scheduled McCluer North for tomorrow (Friday), but the game has had to be rescheduled.

GLENN EDWARDS of North (left) goes for the ball last night in soccer action at Vianney High School in St. Louis.

South takes win from 'improved' Belleville West

BELLEVILLE — Gene Baker says he has been having trouble getting his Granite City South soccer team motivated recently. But that wasn't enough for Belleville West here Monday.

South out-shot the Maroons 26-3 and rode the crest of three Fred Schuler goals to defeat West 3-0.

"We seem to be a bit methodical at times," said Baker of South. "I can't place my finger on it, but I really wasn't happy with the way we acted at the beginning of the game. We seemed as if we were dead."

But even though they seemed "dead," the Warriors' Schuler made minced meat of Maroon goalie Mike Howard. At the 19:51 mark of the first quarter, he slammed one in on an assist from Danny Long. Then at the 37:24 mark, in the second quarter, Schuler found the range again, this time unassisted.

FINALLY, at the 73:17 mark, Schuler scored a goal on an assist from Steve Spencer to finish the scoring.

On the first goal, South executed a perfect play with Long and Schuler.

SCHULER passed the ball to Long, standing all alone in front of the Belleville West goal. Just as a West defender went after him, Long dropped the ball off his chest to the ground to the "ailing" Schuler, who popped it into the net. Goal. Lead. Game.

"That's just the way we do it in practice," said Baker. "They did a good job."

The three goals by Schuler are his second hat-trick in this season (he scored four times against Edwardsville).

"Fred's a very explosive-type player," said Baker. "But he's also very quiet about it all. He doesn't get excited."

In fact, Baker said that as a team South doesn't like to show any emotions. "We try not to show our emotions," he said. "But sometimes I wish we would act a little differently than we did today before the game."

BELLEVILLE WEST coach Gary Carr admitted to the superiority of South's kickers.

"We kind of rushed things tonight," he said. "But there's no doubt about it. They are the superior ball club."

"They show what has made them the state champions. They just do everything in a superior way. They have that sort of game sense that takes many years to develop. We've only been at this thing a year and a half."

South's Baker was generous in his praise of West. "They're definitely improving," he said. "They were brilliant last year, but something like 16-1 last year. This is a big improvement in the score, as far as they're concerned."

Baker said that the improvement of West is indicative of the way soccer is getting better throughout the area.

"The game's getting better and better on this side of the river," he said. "There are several teams which are better this year than last, and which will be even better next year."

"I think it's good for the game."

SCHULER's second goal came on a mistake by the Belleville West defense. Maroon halfback John Winter lost control of the ball in his own end of the field and Schuler streaked past and stole it.

Running down the sidelines with the ball, Schuler got past another West defender and shot the ball past Howard.

The final goal of the game was scored when Schuler headed in a booming shot by teammate Steve Spencer, who let go with it from just inside the mid-field line.

But Carr wasn't singing the blues about it. "Heck, I think we did a pretty good job on them," he said. "Last year they were beating some of the best teams from Chicago by scores of 7-0 and 6-0. We held them to 3-0. That in itself is like a victory for us."

Other SIUE scores in Indiana were: Dave Dean, 201; Derek Dolenc, 204; and Guy Phillips, 212.

tourney. Last season, they finished second behind first-place Northern Iowa and just ahead of third-place Iowa University. The tournament will be over 72 holes.

At Terre Haute, Tim Gehrig's 198 and Les Agne's 199 were good enough to win for them second and third medalist honors respectively. Larry Emery of SIU-Carbondale shot a 195 to capture the meet's medalist laurels.

Other SIUE scores in Indiana were: Dave Dean, 201; Derek Dolenc, 204; and Guy Phillips, 212.

Carbondale tied for second and third with a 810 score.

Other finishers, in order, were: U. of Missouri, Columbia, 811; Illinois State, 812; Western Kentucky, 817; Murray State, 819; U. of Tenn. at Chattanooga, 826; Bradley, 830.

Indiana State "B" team, 833; Northern Kentucky, 844; U. of Missouri, St. Louis, 870; and St. Louis U., 898.

Host of the 20-school tournament this weekend at Cedar Falls will be Northern Iowa University. The Cougars will be playing their third year in the year, B-PC was fairly effective in gaining yardage, but couldn't cross the goal line enough and fell to arch-rival Beardstown, 21-7.

BUSHNELL-PAIRIE CITY is a member of the Class 2A (football playoffs system) Spoon River Conference. Other members are Beardstown, Petersburg-Porta, Rushville, Havana, Lewistown and Farmington. Bushnell is located about 12 miles northeast of Macomb.

B-PC is a consolidated school. Bushnell has a population of around 3,700 and Prairie City is a mere spot on the map... the official population is listed as 630. But don't let the size fool you, says Flier. The Spoon River Conference is known for hard-hitting, physical football.

Flier said his Spartan team this season is one of the smallest overall in recent history. "We go about 5-10 to 6 feet and average in weight anywhere from 160 to 190 pounds," he said. "That's small when you compare it with the sizes we've had here recently."

"Just a couple of seasons ago, B-PC had an average weight on the team of about 225 pounds, and the backs averaged 280," (Continued on Page 26)

number one singles player. South defeated the Indians 5-2 after beating McCluer of St. Louis Monday 7-0.

Cougar golfers win at Indiana

CEDAR FALLS, Iowa — Coach Harry Gallatin's Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville golf team, fresh from its big victory last week at the Sycamore Golf Classic Tournament in Terre Haute, will be seeking new worlds to conquer here today through Sunday.

At Terre Haute, the Cougar golfers were brilliant in winning over a field of 13. SIUE's final score was 797 over a 45-hole event shortened because of rain. The host Indiana State Sycamores A team and SIU-

Carbondale tied for second and third with a 810 score.

Other finishers, in order, were: U. of Missouri, Columbia, 811; Illinois State, 812; Western Kentucky, 817; Murray State, 819; U. of Tenn. at Chattanooga, 826; Bradley, 830.

JIM JEFFRIES

GRANITE CITY — Granite City North will win its first football game of the 1978 season tomorrow night at home against Wood River.

That's the opinion of this week's Press-Record "Guest-Guessers," Jim Jeffries and Jim Whaley. But it's just about the only thing the two agree on.

Jeffries, 36, is the principal of Webster Grade School in Granite City and Whaley is a sales representative for Vesel Distributing of Granite City. Both are avid sports fans.

Both prognosticators feel that North is due for a victory. "I've got to go with them," said Whaley. "I know they're better than they've shown in their first two games."

"They'll be up. Besides, they know Wood River and know what to expect from them. I think they'll get the job done."

But our guessers are more divided in opinion when it comes to Granite City. South's game tomorrow night at Belleville East. "I'm picking East," said Jeffries. "They're rated in just about everybody's top ten and have always been tough to beat."

Besides, after last year's game, I don't think South can come back."

Last season, East handed South's Warriors a 40-0 whitewashing at home. But that doesn't bother Whaley. "That 40-0 game doesn't scare me, and I don't think it scares South," he said. "They'll be up there giving it all they've got. I think they added Flier. "But we make up for our size with quickness."

That lack of size may have something to do with Bushnell-Prairie City's decision to go with the passing attack this season. According to Flier, the Spartans have leaned more to the airwaves than the ground during the team's first two games. Will two losses do anything to change that plan of attack?

"I DON'T think so," said Flier. "If you look at our offensive statistics, they aren't that bad. We just have a few problems of youthfulness to overcome, along with a few mistakes we've committed in the first two games."

"But those are things every team is going to encounter. As long as our guys keep up the good strong mental attitude they have, we're going to win some ball games. They haven't let the two straight losses get to them."

The Spartans will center their passing attack around junior quarterback Bill Miller. Thus far, the first year (varsity) player has completed 15 out of 32 passes for 270 yards. "He's got a good head on his shoulders and is a good passer," said Flier. "I've got no regrets about starting him back there, even with no varsity experience."

THE REST of the Spartan backfield will be filled by senior running back Charlie Vocum (5-8, 185 pounds) and halfback Ken Maloney (5-11, 160 pounds). Both are seniors.

"Charlie's built pretty low to the ground, and he makes pretty good use of his size and knows where and how to hit the hole," said Flier. "Maloney's got good inside speed and can show it, too."

The Spartans have rushed for a total of 285 yards through the first two games.

Whatever the size or the talent, Flier will find out in a little over 24 hours whether or not he'll be the coach of the winning team, for the first time this season, when his squad faces Nick Jakich's Madison Trojans at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

South harriers fall in tri-meet

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South's cross country team dropped a triangular meet Monday at Wilson Park to East St. Louis Senior and Belleville West.

East St. Louis won the meet with 25 points. West had 37 and South finished with 78 points. The individual winner was Ken Cook of Belleville West. He ran the 2.8 mile Wilson Park course in 15:05. Kevin Nickerson of East St. Louis was second in 15:14.

South's Dave Houston was the highest finisher for the Warriors. He placed third in a time of 15:18. Dennis Nichols of East St. Louis was fourth in 15:40. Craig Kerns of West was fifth in 15:44.

Mike Williams of East St. Louis was seventh in 15:46. Anthony Young of East St. Louis was eighth with a time of 16:08. Ron Wagner was ninth in 16:15 and Steve Kammer (also from West) rounded out the top ten with a time of 16:16.

may just pull it off."

Both guessers agree that Madison should beat Bushnell-Prairie City. "I don't know a whole lot about Bushnell," said Whaley. "But I know that Nick (Jakich, the Madison coach) will have those guys up for it. After coming through last week under pretty bad circumstances, I think they'll make it two in a row."

Both agree in their picks in college except for one. Jeffries is going with West Texas State over Southern Illinois. Whaley sees it the other way.

"West Texas is the defending conference champ," said Jeffries. "SIU had a tough time last week against Lamar. I just don't think the Salukis can beat two Texas schools in a row."

But Whaley is going with SIU. "West Texas lost quite a few from last year," he said. "Besides, I have to go with SIU... that's where Jim Hart played!"

Both agree that Stanford should hand Illinois its third straight loss Saturday in Champaign. "If they had four or five more Tom Schooleys, they might have a chance," laughed Whaley.

The final disagreement between the two predictors comes in the game Sunday in "Big D." St. Louis vs. Dallas. In previous years, it was the game of the week on television, the eyes of the league were upon it. Two powerhouses struggling it out for supremacy in the National Conference East. But no more... at least according to Jeffries. "I've got to go with Dallas," he said. "For obvious reasons."

But Whaley is picking the upset of the week... St. Louis over Dallas. "The Cougars lost last week, and D. D. Lewis said they're going to take it out on the Big Red," he said. "But I don't see it that way. Despite all their troubles, I think they're going to pull it off."

LAST WEEK: Fred Hoffman proved to be the better of last week's guessers, picking the winner in five out of seven games. Jerry Wallace picked the Granite City South over O'Fallon. Wallace went with O'Fallon.

Doneff and ISU seeking first victory of season Saturday

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — Two stumbling offensive units will try to awaken when Illinois State and Kent State collide at 1:30 p.m. EDT Saturday at Kent, Ohio.

Both teams are 0-2, and were limited to field goals by their opponents last Saturday.

For Illinois State, Granite City Mike Doneff has carried the ball a total of 10 times in two games at fullback for 23 yards, an average gain of 2.3 yards per carry. However, he has lost two yards in attempts, so his actual yardage total is 21.

Illinois State had a pair measuring 42 and 41 yards from freshman Isaac Camargo of Hialeah, Fla., in a 28-6 loss to Western Kentucky. Camargo also had a 42-yard goal in the previous week's 27-17 setback at Western Michigan.

Kent State has had even less scoring production. The Golden Flashes were shut out 41-0 in their opener against Central Michigan, and managed only a 25-yard field goal from baseball recruit Lou Caraceni in a 29-3 loss to Ball State last week.

Illinois State coach Charlie Crowder takes no solace from Kent State's 0-2 record. Kent pummeled ISU 33-14 last season. The Flashes opened away from home this fall against the 2-0 of the Mid-American Conference's strongest teams, but now begin a three-game home stand.

Crowder's squad is returning to basics this week.

"Mental and physical mistakes just completely took us out of the ball game," he said of the loss to Western Kentucky. "Our breakdown was in blocking, tackling, and execution."

The Redbirds will be trying to improve a rushing game that has yet to produce a touchdown.

ISU coach John Coughlan said the team's first game of the season will be played on Saturday mornings at 9 and 10:15 at Wilson Park and on Thursday evenings at 6 and 7:15 at West Granite Park.

Flag football starts today

The Granite City Park District will begin its 1978 boys Flag Football program today, Sept. 21, at 6 p.m. at West Granite Park. This year's program consists of 5 teams of eleven and twelve year old boys with 14 to 18 boys on each team. The games this year will be played on Saturday mornings at 9 and 10:15 at Wilson Park and on Thursday evenings at 6 and 7:15 at West Granite Park.

Gueker's fears realized

By AL BARNES

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Coach Bob Gueker's worst pre-season fears were realized in the second day's play in the first annual Indiana University Big Red Soccer Tournament at Bloomington, over the past weekend.

"Our first-line strength is definitely outstanding," said Gueker. But, the lack of a strong bench, or depth, "will hurt us. Gueker predicted before the season opened."

SIUE's Cougar kickers stunned the American collegiate soccer community in their first game Saturday in the Big Red Classic as they ran roughshod over the NCAA Division I National defending champion Hartwick College Warriors, 5-0. It was the first time SIUE had ever beaten Hartwick in three tries over eight years.

But, in that triumph, the Cougars' ace winger-midfielder, Brian Higgins, required a pulled muscle which kept him from playing in SIUE's Sunday game with the high-ranking Nittany Lions of Penn State, who shut out Gueker's team, 2-0.

PENN STATE, showing their obvious lack of playing time on an artificial surface like the one covering Indiana U's Memorial Stadium, had lost Saturday to the Hoosiers, 2-0.

Sunday, the Penn State coach had his charges at the stadium two hours before their game with SIUE, getting more acquainted with the tough astro-turf surface. It paid off as Penn State scored early in the game at 17:25 on a long-shot chance from 32 yards out on a booming blast by the Lions' big fullback, Ken MacDonald. Penn State completed the scoring at 83:00 as its sub forward, Pete Janacevski, took a long, booming kick downfield which caught practically all the SIUE players downfield trying desperately to tie it up. Janacevski's shot had Cougar goalies, Bob Robson, completely at his mercy.

In the first half of SIUE's game with Penn State, the Cougars missed three heart-breaking shots on goal. And, just before Penn State scored their second goal, little Jeff Cacciatore missed an open goal shot just slightly to the right of the goal.

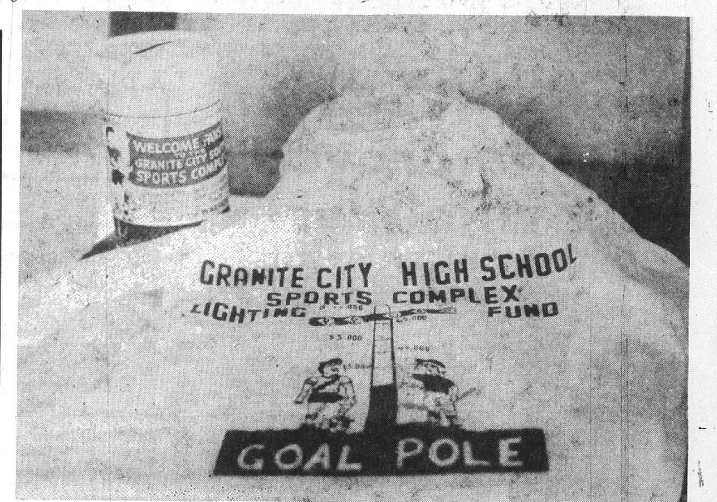

INDIANA won the tournament as the Hoosiers gradually wore down a courageous but badly outgunned Hartwick College team, 4-0, Sunday afternoon. Indiana is now 4-0.

SIUE's record dipped to 2-1-1. However, SIUE gained some recognition from the tourney. The Cougars' defensive star Mike Kelley, was picked as the meet's best defensive player, and little Jeff Cacciatore was chosen by the national magazine, Soccer America, as its "Player of the Tournament."

IU's forward Bob Meschbach of Chicago was named the meet's best offensive player. This weekend, the Cougars will again be on the road, with a pair of games in the Kansas City area: Saturday (at 2 p.m.) they'll battle it out with the Rockhurst College Hawks in K.C. and Sunday they'll travel on to Atchison, Kan., to play Benedictine College, also in an afternoon game.

SIUE then will open its regular home season at Cougar Field in an afternoon game Sunday, Oct. 1, at 1:30 p.m. In addition to the loss of Higgins, the Cougars have played their last three games without their ace midfielder, Bozozak. The team's optimistic estimate as to return to the lineup is in two weeks.

HERE'S WHAT TO LOOK FOR: The Granite City South Lighting Fund, which saw its goal nearly met when the Township Board allocated $50,000 for the fund, needs around $2,000 to push it over the top. Solicitors, wearing T-shirts like the one shown, and carrying collection boxes, will go door-to-door in Granite City this Sunday, Sept. 24.

He had nothing to lose

BLOOMINGTON, ILL. — Because Mike Matteson had nothing to lose, Illinois State University's cross country team found a lot.

ISU coach John Coughlan said the team's first game of the season will be played on Saturday mornings at 9 and 10:15 at Wilson Park and on Thursday evenings at 6 and 7:15 at West Granite Park.

Null takes prize at Carlyle Lake

CARLYLE — On Sept. 16, Mid-America Bass Fisherman's Association held its 1978 Carlyle Invitational, the last of its 1978 regular tournaments in its Mid-Eastern Division, out of Key-Sport Harbor on Carlyle Lake, near Carlyle, Ill., with 121 men from three states competing. Using a white buzz bait on the rip rap, Bill Harkins of St. Charles, Mo., topped the tournament field with 4 bass that weighed 10 lbs., 2 oz., and claimed the first place prize of $726 in cash, plus a trophy.

Chuck Stettin of Mattoon, Ill., boated 2 bass weighing 8 lbs. even for second place, worth $362 in cash, and a trophy.

Mark Brown of Bethany, Ill., came in third, good for $242 in cash and a trophy, with 3 bass weighing 7 lbs., 4 oz.

Big bass honors, worth $121 and a trophy, went to George Liddle, Jr., of Alsip, Ill., who brought in a 6 lb., 13 oz.unker.

Here is a complete list of the top twenty fishermen in the 1978 Carlyle Invitational on Carlyle, with place, name and town, weight and amount won, listed in that order:

1. Bill Harkins, St. Charles, Mo., 10-2, $726; 2. Chuck Stettin, Mattoon, Ill., 8-0, $362; 3. Mark Brown, Bethany, Ill., 7-4, $242;

the group in the 18-19 age group last season in that event. In his two cross country runs so far this fall, he has finished first and second.

"He's a heck of a runner," ISU coach John Coughlan said. "He could very well turn out to be one of the best in a couple of years."

"He's a tremendous competitor and he runs consistent races meet after meet. He was a pleasant surprise for us. He was outstanding in cross country, but I wasn't sure how strong he would be in track."

Matteson and his teammates will have to put their best foot forward at 10 a.m. Saturday (Sept. 23) in a meet with Southern Illinois University at the ISU Golf Course. Coughlan says it will be the stiffest test to date for his runners.

"Southern has three top runners, and we are going to have to break up those three if we're going to win," he said. "In a dual meet you can't let a team take the top three runners on you and expect to win."

Southern's top three runners are two-time NCAA qualifier Mike Sawyer, Paul Garof of North Ireland and Mike Bissac of Uganda.

Although Matteson has had success so far, he thinks he can do better.

"I didn't have as good a summer as last year," he said. "I'm not in as good a shape as last year. I think I can lower my times."

Matteson finished second to Joe Paul of Iowa in the Redbirds' third dual victory without defeat last weekend. He ran the four-mile course in 19 minutes, 41 seconds.

"I came here as a freshman and felt I had nothing to lose," Matteson said. "I just wanted to go out and prove to myself that I could do the job."

Coughlan says one of Matteson's strong points is that he doesn't get excited in a race.

"He runs strong in the early stages of the meet and then makes a strong run in the end," said Coughlan. "He holds himself in the pack and understands when to make his move."

"I really think he'll run a lot better toward the end of the season. He is really starting to run into shape with each meet. We are going to be looking to Mike for leadership this year and in the future because of what he has already done."

ISU had seven runners finish the meet against Iowa under 20 minutes, which was pleasing to Coughlan.

Freshman Herman Sabneyah of Tuba City, Ariz., was third in the Iowa meet with another freshman, Mike Baker of Granite City (North), fourth.

Junior Chris Kuntz of Villa Park (Willowbrook) has yet to run this season after being slowed by an early summer injury, but Coughlan says he's starting to come around.

"He'll be one of our top runners when he returns," Coughlan said.

U.S.-Japan volleyball set

CARBONDALE — Area sports enthusiasts will get an opportunity to see world class volleyball at its best Sunday, Oct. 15 at 4 p.m. when the Japanese and American women's teams visit the SIU Arena for a star spangled exhibition.

Tickets may be mail ordered beginning September 18 by writing Women's Intercollegiate Athletics, Davies Gym, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill. 62901. Ticket prices are: $5 for all reserved seats, $4 for general admission, $2 general admission for SIU students (with ID or spouse cards), $1 general admission for children age 12 and under. Special group rates for parties numbering ten persons or more will also be provided.

The Japanese will come to Carbondale as part of a 27-stop, month long tour of the United States; they will bring the same veteran squad that proved good enough to capture the gold medal at the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal.

The U.S. will counter with an ambitious aggregation that has shown signs of emerging as a superpower in its own right on the international volleyball scene. The talented Yanks have flexed some burgeoning muscles of late.

After defeating the Soviet Union twice last year, the U.S. squad completed a successful Asian swing this summer by splitting 26 games with host Japan. SIU women's volleyball coach Debbie Hunter, the newly selected AIAW representative to the United States Volleyball Association (USVBA), provides an explanation of the American team's recent resurgence.

"Lopsided losses for our national team in international competition the past few years spurred the powers that be in American volleyball to regroup. As a result of a concerted effort to upgrade the overall program, our U.S. squad has made phenomenal improvement in only a short time," Hunter said. "Pat Dowdell and Flo Hyman, a pair of 23 year olds, have led the American rise to prominence. Dowdell, a '62 volleyball product of Houston, Tx., was selected the USVBA Rookie of the Year in 1973, the same year that she participated in her first international competition."

Under national coach Arlie Selinger's guidance, she has since blossomed into one of the world's premier spikers. The three-time All American led her teammates to victories over Hungary, Cuba and the Soviet Union last August in the prestigious Varna Invitational in Bulgaria where she was chosen the Outstanding Player in the tourney.

Hyman, a '65 native of Southern California, complements the offensive-minded Dowdell with sparkling defensive play from her middle back position. She has played an integral role in the U.S. comeback on the international circuit. After America's narrow miss at qualifying for the '76 Olympics, the national contingent rallied around Hyman and company to earn an invitation to the elite, quadrennial World Cup Championship in Tokyo; the field there will consist only of the world's top eight teams.

Hyman, one of few Blacks to play volleyball in the states, has been a member of every American national team since 1973. She was awarded the dual honor of being chosen collegiate All American and USVBA All American in 1975 and 1976.

Whether the considerable talents of Dowdell and Hyman will be enough to propel the U.S. squad to an upset over the Japanese volleyballers at the Arena October 15 remains to be seen. While not overly optimistic, SIU's coach Hunter likes the underdog Yanks' chances. "I think our American team is now good enough to win at least one third of all the exhibitions this October in the states so I certainly would not rule out our girls outscoring the Japanese in the exhibition here," Hunter said.

"I am certain that the three-out-of-five game match in Carbondale will be exceedingly close from start to finish. The games will likely feature lots of long rallies and, in general, the kind of quality excitement that will keep the fans on the edge of their seats," Hunter added.

North, South in action

GRANITE CITY — Granite City South wants revenge.

Tomorrow (Friday) night in this neighboring community, Granite City South will seek to do three things: 1) win its second straight game, 2) gain revenge for a 40-0 loss to Belleville East last season and 3) defeat one of the toughest teams in the area.

But one thing's for sure. Belleville East isn't going to be as tough as the first team South faces this season, Jefferson City, Mo. South lost 64-0 in that one. But the game Warrior backers like to talk about is last week's game.

South racked up some impressive offensive statistics and shut out O'Fallon 20-0 to even the season's record at 1-1. But East hasn't done so badly for itself either. The Lancers are unbeaten in two games and haven't had a sub-500 season in their 12 year history. Last week they beat arch-rival Belleville Althoff 13-0. This week they set their sites on South's Warriors. Belleville East will feature an attack based upon a blistering ground game. Danny Snodgrass (176-pound senior) is the starting fullback. Last week against Althoff, he scored a touchdown. Chris Castiller (172-pound junior) gained 92 yards on 21 carries at halfback last week. Todd Bond (188-pound junior) gained 77 yards on 22 carries at halfback and scored a touchdown. That's pretty good size in the backfield. It's made even bigger when combined with quarterback Jeff Burckett's 170-pound frame.

East head coach Dean Renn feels his team's strong point this week at halfback and scored a touchdown. "That's got to be our strongest point, he said. "That line's been doing the job so far. It has to be if we're going to win."

GRANITE CITY NORTH will be seeking its first victory of the season tomorrow night when it hosts Wood River at Memorial Field here at 7:30 p.m.

The Steelers were surprised in their first game of the season at Cahokia 16-0 and dropped a second-half decision to Collinsville last week, 25-7, after leading at halftime.

Fashions To You beauty shop opens

Fashions To You Beauty Salon was opened this month at 2401 Kate St., by Jan McClelland who has 13 years experience in every phase of beauty and hair care.

To accommodate her customers, Miss McClelland has seven trained cosmetologists who specialize in hair color, permanent wave, hair shaping and blow dry styling, and creating the latest designs in hair styles.

A select line of hair products are available at the shop and are offered for sale to the customers. Colleen Corbett and Pat Dortch are hair color specialists and are proficient in treating damaged or dry hair and giving permanent waves.

Kelly Manning, Rhonda Wallace, and Rosie Baker keep up with the newest hair shaping and blow dry styles including the contour look and other creations for short, medium or long length hair.

Another employee, Marcia Werner, an accomplished beautician, also is an instructor at the Belleville Academy of Beauty Culture.

The salon has two large rooms featuring 10 hair dryers, three shampoo bowls and six stations arranged before a wall of mirrors, for the benefit of customers.

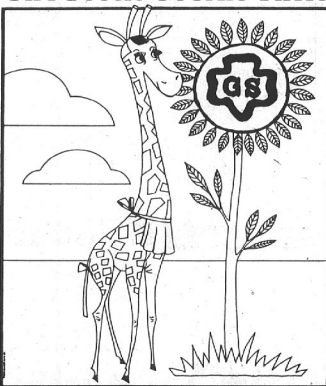

Both adults and children are given individual attention upon arrival at the salon, since no appointments are necessary during the day or evening hours.

Beauticians are on duty from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 6:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings are set aside for working women or those unable to find transportation during the day.

All employees have from one year to 14 years experience and have worked in area shops.

A lifelong resident of Granite City, Miss McClelland attended an Allentown Beauty Culture School and completed her studies at the Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

Girl Scout Cookie Time

RHONDA WALLACE, an employee of the newly-opened Fashions To You Beauty Salon, seated at the business desk completes supply orders. She is one of the cosmetologists at the shop trained as a specialized technician in the art of hair shaping and blow-dry styling.

Fertilizing will pep up lawn

Fall fertilizing and cool weather is a recipe that will pep up your lawn.

Fertilizing your lawn in September will stimulate bluegrass and ryegrass while crabgrass and knotweed are dying. If you plan a one-shot application, increase the bag recommendation by 50 percent and apply it in September. If you prefer a more regulated rate of growth, plan on two applications this fall; early September and late October. Follow the bag rate of each application.

Whether you follow the one application or two application plan, you will notice an increase in growth and a dark green tone. Active fall growth will also result in each bluegrass plant expanding into nearby thin spots to create a uniform dense turf.

Be sure to select a lawn fertilizer that has a high nitrogen content. Lawn fertilizers always have a nitrogen content that is higher than the second and third numbers. If the nitrogen content in a bag of fertilizer is low, that fertilizer is best for new lawns or gardens, not established lawns!

White grubs may be the cause if a large area of your lawn is slow to recover from the drought.

When white grubs are severe, areas of turf will be loose and easily peel back just like a rug.

As many as eight to 10 grubs will be seen in the loose soil and among the chewed off roots. If you find a high population of grubs treat immediately with diazinon or spectracide. The granules are best. Follow directions on the bag, and be sure to immediately water-in the chemical to a depth of three inches. The effect of the chemical may take a few days to get complete kill.

Lions Candy Day Friday, Oct. 13

The Pontoon Beach, Madison and Granite City Lions Clubs will hold their annual "Candy Day" on Friday, Oct. 13, along with other clubs throughout the State of Illinois.

This is the day an estimated 30,000 Illinois Lions, their friends, relatives and volunteers will take to the street corners, shopping centers, and other public places to give away candy and accept donations for humanitarian services from early morning to dusk.

It will be the 26th straight year for the campaign, marked this year by proclamations from Governor Thompson, Chicago Mayor Bianchi, and others. The goal will be $1 million, marking the fourth year the group will have a million-dollar goal.

The title this year reflects a growth in Illinois Lionism. In the past, the day was formally called "Illinois Lions Clubs Candy Day for the Blind and Sight Conservation." The name this year is "Illinois Lions Clubs Candy Day For Humanitarian Services."

"The title was changed to reflect an increasing scope in the goal of Candy Day," said Norman R. Dahl, executive administrator of the Lions of Illinois Foundation, coordinator.

Rites Wednesday for Monte Clendenen, 16

Funeral services for Monte Clendenen, 16, of 39 Holiday Mobile Homes Park, was held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20, at a Carrollton, Ill., funeral home.

He was killed when the car in which he was riding went out of control on Steele Hill at Glen Carbon late Sunday night, overturned several times and crashed into a tree.

Burial was in Memorial Gardens Cemetery, Eldred, Ill.

dinating group for Candy Day. "We still will support those agencies and programs we have helped in the past," Dahl said. "But this year we will increase support to help not only the blind and visually handicapped, but also the deaf and hearing impaired."

The thrust already shows in a camping program the Lions sponsor. It includes hearing impaired children as well as blind children. Earlier this year, Illinois Lions launched a mobile unit to go around the state offering hearing tests. The group already has a Mobile Glaucoma Screening Unit.

The Lions of Illinois Foundation administers several programs for direct help to the blind and visually handicapped, financed by Candy Day. These include the Glaucoma Unit, Camp Lions, Eye Donor Registry Program, Used Eyeglasses Collection for use in underdeveloped countries, publishing of the Illinois Directory of Services for the Visually Handicapped and a Social Services and Referral Program.

Candy Day money also is used for local Lions Club humanitarian services. Money collected also is donated to Hadley School for the Blind, Rochester, Mich.; Dialogue with the Blind; the University of Illinois Department of Ophthalmology at the Medical School; and a Low Vision Program at the Illinois College of Optometry.

Lions annually give away about 3.5 million rolls of candy. The cost of the candy is underwritten by individuals and businesses throughout the state.

Consolidated elections are delayed to December 1980

Governor James R. Thompson announced this week that he would approve legislation delaying the effective date of the Consolidated Elections Law until Dec. 1, 1980.

In a speech before the Illinois Municipal League meeting at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Thompson said additional time is necessary to implement the comprehensive new statute.

He said House Bill 2554 and Senate Bill 1419 both implement the consolidated schedule of elections passed by the General Assembly and signed into law last year.

The new implementing legislation centralizes the administration of elections in county clerk's offices and boards of election.

Additional procedural changes made by these bills deal with absentee ballots, referenda, polling places and district election cost sharing. Thompson said he would veto Senate Bill 1419 because of several technical deficiencies and would use his amendatory veto powers to make three changes in House Bill 2554:

1. To extend the effective date of the consolidation of elections to Dec. 1, 1980.

2. To require that vacancies in the office of mayor or alderman will be filled at the next scheduled election rather than at the next primary or non-partisan election.

3. To make several minor technical amendments.

"Without these changes," Gov. Thompson said, "it would be possible for individuals to serve in the office of mayor by appointment for up to 27 months or in an aldermanic office for up to 18 months."

"These changes will ensure that the people will have the earliest possible opportunity to vote for candidates for municipal offices."

The governor said the new consolidated elections law will "reduce the multiplicity of local elections and help focus voter attention on the electoral process."

"Decisions made by local officials most directly affect the people's daily lives. We owe it to the voters to reduce the number of times they must go to the polls, by making the electoral process more rational and efficient," Thompson said.

HB 2554 was sponsored by Representatives Harry Yourell, Oak Lawn, Phillip Collins, Calumet City, and William Laurino, Chicago, and Senator Samuel Maragos, Chicago.

SB 1419 was sponsored by Senators Maragos and John Graham, Barrington, and Rep. Yourell.

Art gallery and other changes planned at University Center

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees last week authorized expenditure of up to $800,000 of Student Welfare and Recreation Trust Fund (SWRF) fee monies for renovation of the University Center at the local campus.

The renovation will provide additional office space for student organizations; additional meeting room space; the addition of flexible, multi-purpose areas; expansion of space available to the Alestle, the student newspaper; the addition of an art gallery to the Center's facilities; and the consolidation of University Center administration and business office functions.

Since the School of Business vacated the University Center in November 1976, the administration of the building, in cooperation with students and administrative officers, has been studying and developing proposals for renovations.

During 1977, a renovation committee made up of students, staff and administrative officers proceeded with discussion and analyses of various proposals for the renovation.

At its meeting in October 1977, the SIU board authorized expenditures to retain Architectural Associates, Inc., to perform initial design work on the renovation and to assist the committee. In the early stages of planning for the renovation, university officers said, it was anticipated that financing of the project would be through bond proceeds and that the bond sale would be a part of an overall refinancing project then under way. An analysis indicated that with bond funding, the debt service and repayment requirements would probably necessitate increases in student fees, a prospect not favored by students or administrators. Consequently, alternative sources of funding were sought for the renovation.

Both administration and student leaders favor use of SWRF funds for the renovation, officers said. Accordingly, the renovation was included in the Capital Development projects plans for SWRF which were approved by the board at its July meeting this year.

Subsequent to the decision to seek SWRF funding for the renovation, the SIU Student Senate began formalized consideration of all aspects of the proposed renovation and resulting moves of offices and functions.

While the Senate had been involved in development of the renovation plans from the beginning, the review was specifically related to the Senate's deliberations regarding recommending SWRF funding for the project.

After numerous discussions and meetings with University Center and university officers, the Student Senate voted to recommend SWRF funding for the renovation provided that: —24-hour access to the student activities offices within the University Center be provided during the renovation.

—The Housing Office not be moved to a location within the University Center. Movement of the Housing office to the Center had been proposed in the development of the renovation.

—The building be renamed the Student Union; and that, —The Centennial Room in the Center be renovated for student offices.

Provisions placed on the Student Senate recommendation for SWRF funding have been discussed by university and student leaders. Although final resolution of all of the matters is not immediately at hand, officials commented that neither student leaders nor university administrators believe these matters represent significant barriers to satisfactory progress or completion of the renovation project.

A sum not to exceed $12,000 of the $800,000 was authorized by the board for reimbursement to the University Center operations and maintenance budget for payments for architectural services related to the renovation and already provided by the capital project.

The board also reaffirmed its approval of the firm of Architectural Associates of Collinsville as architect and design consultant for the project.

Home economics alumni to meet

Make-A-Date in '78 is the theme of the second annual meeting for the University of Illinois Home Economics Alumni Association to be held Saturday, Sept. 23, at the Champaign-Urbana campus.

According to Mrs. Jean Wehling, alumni board member, the program will feature a report from Dr. Pauline Paul, director of the School of Human Resources and Family Studies, displays of student projects and a luncheon. The luncheon will be held at the Illinois Student Union Building.

CENTURY 21 LAUNCHES N. AMERICA DATA BANK

A new Century 21 service — enabling investment property owners to expose their property throughout North America — is operational, according to Edward J. Noonan, regional director, and Nathan N. Movitz, Century 21 marketing director, for Missouri, southern Illinois and eastern Kansas.

The Century 21 International Property Data Bank is available through more than 6,000 real estate offices affiliated with Century 21 in the U.S. and Canada. Within the local region are 235 offices and over 3,000 sales associates.

Students ask—Trade a room to a baby-sitter?

"Additional student housing within commuting distance of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville must be found before fall classes begin next Monday, Sept. 25," according to Richard Madison, acting director of housing.

Tower Lake Apartments, the on-campus housing complex for 1,200 single students and 200 families, was filled three months ago and has 300 applicants on a waiting list. Additional students are compounding the problem during registration at the local campus this week.

To fill the need, university officials are asking area residents to study their homes for possible vacant rooms or beds to accommodate students. All types of living quarters are sought, including apartments, houses and mobile homes. As a free service, University Housing (692-3831) will compile the vacancies and relay them.

Some students are willing to work out special arrangements with homeowners to provide babysitting, minor maintenance or housekeeping services in exchange for a portion of the rent. Connie Lowe, off-campus housing coordinator, said, other students simply offer added income and the security of another person living in the house.

Ideal locations are described as communities within 20 to 30 minutes driving distance of the campus, including Alton, Wood River, Granite City, Troy, Marine, East Alton, Roxana, Hamel, Collinsville, Hartford, Glen Carbon, Bethalto, Maryville and Highland.

Apple fest to preserve 1755 home

Prairie du Rocher, established in 1722, is the oldest area that was settled as a village in the state of Illinois. Any settlement older than Prairie du Rocher was settled as a fort, mission or trading post, its proud enthusiasts assert in announcing plans for Sept. 30-Oct. 1 activities there.

Within Prairie du Rocher are many old homes, one known as the Creole House. Owned by the Randolph County Historical Society, the Creole House is the original French settlers' home, begun in approximately 1755.

The house is of distinctive long, low French-Mississippi River style. It is listed on the Historic American Buildings Survey (1935) and the National Register of Historic Places (1973).

In the interest of preserving this building, the historical society has scheduled its second annual apple fest.

On Saturday, Sept. 30, and Sunday, Oct. 1, members of the historical society will be at the Creole House demonstrating the way the original French settlers made apple butter, apple cider and apple fritters.

Members will welcome visitors and answer questions. Prairie du Rocher is west of Ruma on Illinois Highway 155.

To find the Creole House in Prairie du Rocher, go south on Highway 155 and turn left at the second corner in Prairie du Rocher. The Creole House is about a block down that street," a spokesman said.

Simple exercises can assure trim figures

By TOMMYE WALTER
"Twisties" and "Doggies" are not brands of cereals or plastic bags recently placed on the market. The terms refer to certain types of exercises.

Kathy McGrath of Edwardsville said there is no need for people to be envious of dancers and their trim figures. By doing a few simple exercises each day, they can whip their bodies into better condition.

McGrath is a senior at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, majoring in dance.

While many exercises practiced by dancers are far too vigorous to be attempted by senior citizens, others are quite simple and can be executed while sitting or in a standing position. Some exercises can even be performed while the exerciser is viewing television.

"Most people don't have much strength in their lower backs. The lack of strength comes from not using the muscles around the spine properly," Mrs. McGrath said. There are many exercises that senior citizens can do to strengthen the muscles in that area, the young dancer said.

By sitting in a straight chair and pressing the small of his or her back against the chair, a senior citizen can improve the condition of the person's body. "As much of the whole surface of the spine should be pushed against the chair back as possible," Mrs. McGrath said.

A second exercise that can easily be done by older people from a sitting position and gives strength in the abdomen is lifting the leg and lowering it to the floor. "This exercise helps bring the person's front together," Mrs. McGrath said. A third exercise that gives more flexibility in the center of the body can be done while standing. "From a standing position, with legs apart, reach up and out to the sides, stretching the whole side," Mrs. McGrath said.

Housewives can keep their bodies in better condition by swinging their legs from front to back. This simple exercise can be done while they are watching television, ironing or doing other household chores.

Exercises that include twisting the torso are excellent for slimming the hips and waist, Mrs. McGrath said. From a standing position, stretch the arms out from the body to one side, and while keeping the hips stationary, move them from side to side.

"Use the back to begin the movement, allowing the arms to follow," she said. "The arms are open at the first corner (side), close to the body at the center front, and flung open again at the other corner."

According to Mrs. McGrath, it is advisable to do the exercise in both directions to equally develop the muscles on each side. "The exercise uses the muscles more on one side if it is done in only one direction," she said.

An exercise which helps in firming up the thighs and hips involves getting down on all fours. From this "doggie" position, extend one leg behind the body. Bring the extended leg up to the side and look in that direction, bringing the head to meet it. Then kick away and look with the head in the other direction.

An exercise for general leg stretching can be done by sitting on the floor with legs extended together in front and arms to the sides.

"Relax and bring the hands out in front of you like you were scooping water out of a bowl, attempting at the same time to round out the spine," Mrs. McGrath said. This graceful exercise is executed from an "L" position.

Mrs. McGrath pointed out that the exercise is not for curvatures in the spine—in the neck area, between the shoulder blades, at the small of the back, and in the area where the buttocks curve beneath the body.

The curves were placed in the body for a cushioning effect, but most people misuse the muscles around them," she said.

Actually, a person should stand as though he or she were a skeleton hanging from a string. As the dancer spoke, she pulled on an imaginary string that appeared to pass through the back of her head, down through her spine and legs, and to the floor. With the movement, her body assumed a more graceful and supportive contour.

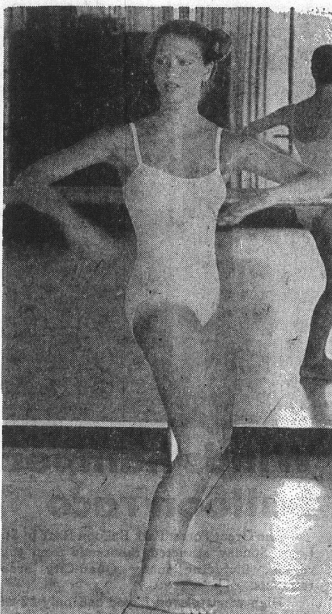

"You really have to lift all the time. Not only in the rib cage area as many people are prone to do, but a kind of lift that is felt all the way up the spine," Mrs. McGrath said.

The young SIUE student pointed out that bicycle riding is not the best exercise for keeping the thighs trim. "Cycling bunches up the muscles in the thighs," Mrs. McGrath said. "While pedaling a bicycle, the muscles in the legs are never really relaxed. They are always tense," she added.

Coolidge teacher on state board

Shirley J. Stall, a Coolidge Junior High School teacher, is one of six appointees to the State Teacher Certification Board announced last week by the State Board of Education. The board assists the State Board of Education and State Superintendent of Education Dr. Joseph M. Cronin in carrying out provisions for certification of all education personnel.

Her appointment runs from July 1, 1978 to June 30, 1981. Dr. Fred D. Carver, dean of the School of Education at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, also was appointed to the board for the same three-year period.

GOOD FOR THE BODY. Kathy McGrath of Edwardsville demonstrates exercises that are good for slimming down the waist and hips. Mrs. McGrath is a senior at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, majoring in dance.

Spring timing for proposed animal shelter

At last week's meeting of the Association for the Protection of Animals (APA), issues discussed included future events for raising money toward the cost of a new animal shelter which the APA plans to build next spring.

A "roll road" is planned for Sept. 30 and another for Oct. 14. The group also will be selling candy and Christmas cards, and plans to have a "white elephant" sale in the near future.

The APA is inviting all interested in the organization to attend the meetings, which are held twice a month on Tuesdays at the Levee Board office on Madison Avenue in Granite City.

"Also, anyone who would like to volunteer to help in the fund-raising events may call the APA for further information," a spokesman said.

The next APA meeting will be on Tuesday, Aug. 26 at 7 p.m.

Year-ahead budget process starts again

State funds being sought by Southern Illinois University for the 1979-80 fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979, include $17.3 million in operating budget increases to cover salary and fringe increases, expanded or improved programs and special funding requirements, as well as more than $43 million in capital budget requests for the university's campus of the university.

The proposals were approved last week by the SIUE Board of Trustees as part of the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMP), a budgeting system instituted by the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Approval of the RAMP document is the first in a series of steps required in development of actual operating and capital fund requests.

The operating budget requests, excluding retirement contributions, are: SIUE at Carbondale, $73,792,000, an increase of $9,085,000; SIUE School of Medicine, $18,721,000, up $2,719,000; SIUE at Edwardsville, $37,851,000, up $4,913,000; SIUE School of Medicine, $3,848,000, a rise of $466,000; System Office, $853,000, an increase of $78,000; total, $135,095,000, up $17,261,000.

Specific purposes for the increases and the amounts for each component of the university are (C-Carbondale, E-Edwardsville, E-D-School of Dental Medicine, S-System Office):

New programs, $514,000 (C $204,000, E $148,000, E-D $108,000); expanded or improved programs, $1,490,000 (C $615,000, C-M $225,000, E $650,000); salary increases, $10,145,000 (C $5,688,000, C-M $1,186,000, E $2,867,000, E-D $55,000, S $38,000).

Price increases, $2,398,000 (C $1,351,000, C-M $339,000, E $664,000, E-D $24,000, S $280,000); operation and maintenance of new buildings, $841,000 (C $378,000, C-M $103,000); special funding, $2,350,000 (C $795,000, C-M $854,000, E $601,000).

A decrease of $17,000 in student aid for SIUE is indicated.

Salary increases requested for 1979-80 are 11 percent for all employees, and price hikes listed include 15.5 percent for fuel and utility items, 11 percent for library materials and equipment and seven percent for other non-personal services items.

The budget request includes equipment replacement funds in the amounts of $795,500 for SIUE and $551,100 for SIUE.

The local campus also is requesting $50,000 for liability and malpractice insurance premium increases. The SIUE School of Medicine is seeking $854,000 to cover actual costs of leased hospital space.

The capital budget request, approved in preliminary form by the board in July, includes $11.5 million for a multi-purpose (health education, physical education and recreation) building at SIUE. Other SIUE projects, listed in order of the university's priority, are:

Planning and design of permanent facilities for the School of Dental Medicine, $1.4 million; instrumental music rehearsal annex, $1.5 million; remodeling for handicapped and safety, Wagner buildings and Alton and East St. Louis campuses, $127 thousand; planning for renovation of Wagner area, $51 thousand; phase III of Broadview renovation, $469 thousand; remodeling and rehabilitation of Alton buildings, $87 thousand. Resurfacing of roads and drives, $442 thousand; renovation of theater, Communications Building, $185 thousand; replacement of carpet in Lovejoy Library, $180 thousand; and relocation of one-third of the northern portion of Bluff Road, $197 thousand. The list totals $16.8 million.

Capital requests for the Carbondale campus total nearly $27 million, headed by emission control projects for various buildings at an estimated cost of $4.5 million. Other projects with high priorities include: School of Law, equipment and site improvements, $1.5 million; Women's Gymnasium, remodeling, $2.8 million; Electron Microscopy Center, remodeling and equipment, $24 thousand; and livestock teaching and research facilities, remodeling and rehabilitation, $686 thousand.

Winds hamper balloon race

The Great Forest Park Balloon Race in St. Louis Sunday attracted thousands from the region, including many Quad-City area residents.

High winds played havoc and only 12 of the 27 hot-air balloons on hand were able to get "off the ground," most landing in the Alton-Wood River area. The event was the seventh annual balloon race and was a "hare and hounds" race with the Bush balloon taking off first and others following, trying to land closest to the hare balloon.

(Upper left) Crews begin the difficult task of inflating their balloons in the wind, including the 7-Up balloon in the foreground and the Vess balloon at the right.

(Upper right) Rising gracefully, the Pizza Hut balloon leaves Forest Park and the Lohr Distributing balloon, still on the ground. Diana Forshee of Wichita, Kan., piloted the Pizza Hut hot-air craft.

(Left) Skydivers added to the color and excitement of the balloon race, landing on target, despite the winds. Four skydivers competed to see who could come closest to the target and two succeeded in linking their parachutes in mid-air, a first in St. Louis.

(Right) The 7-Up balloon has a close call with the trees in Forest Park during its take-off. After just brushing the limbs of a tree, the balloon lifted gracefully with Don Caplan of St. Louis, the pilot, tipping his hat to the cheering crowd.

Push for local school competency test plans

The State Board of Education will conduct seven regional workshops across the state to encourage school districts to initiate their own competency testing programs. Included will be a meeting from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Oct. 19 at the Illinois Office of Education, Springfield.

In addition to encouraging districts to initiate their own minimal competency testing programs, the workshops will explain the Illinois Office of Education's plan for implementation of Public Act (PA) 80-1412.

PA 80-1412 was passed during the spring session of the Illinois General Assembly. The public act calls for the Illinois Office of Education to develop procedures and materials by Dec. 15 to encourage and assist local school districts in developing minimal competency testing programs.

The State Board of Education will report by June 30, 1980, to the General Assembly on recommendations for legislation resulting from its policy study and cost analysis of minimal competency testing programs.

PA 80-1412 is an outgrowth of action taken by the State Board of Education at its March 1978 meeting. The board resolved that the legislature should withhold final action mandating minimal competency testing programs.

The board also directed State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin to encourage and assist school districts in establishing their own minimal competency testing programs.

"Minimal competency tests should be built on local needs and values. The tests should reflect the educational objectives and goals of the community while at the same time meeting the minimum state standards for high school graduation," Dr. Cronin says.

Want a winged pet? Parakeets, lovebirds live 'happily ever after'

If you're thinking of buying a big, brilliantly-colored parrot or an exotic cockatoo, like Fred on the "Baretta" TV show, forget it, says the September issue of Ranger Rick's nature magazine (National Wildlife Federation). Most large parrots and cockatoos are not bred in this country but are captured in the wild, the NWF children's monthly reports.

Many come from countries without adequate laws to protect endangered species, and others are illegally smuggled into this country. "Many wild parrots are in trouble," says Ranger Rick, because many tropical forests are being leveled, and "for every bird that makes it to a pet store, many others have died." Instead of the large, imported birds, Ranger Rick suggests parakeets or lovebirds. They are members of the parrot family but are bred in the United States.

Most pet parakeets are budgies — short for budgerigar — a breed that came originally from Australia. Although they exist in this country mostly in zoos or as pets, parakeets live in the wild on every continent except Europe and Antarctica. Lovebirds, on the other hand, live in the wild only in Africa and parts of Asia. They got their amorous sounding name by habitually sitting together, gently preening each other, and appearing to enjoy each other's company.

Although both birds have feathers in shades of green, blue, yellow or white, it's easy to tell the difference between parakeets and lovebirds, according to the nature magazine. Parakeets have slender bodies with long pointed tails, while lovebirds are stocky with short, rounded tails.

Both have thick, hooked beaks and strong grasping feet with two toes in front and two behind. Their beaks are used as a "third foot" for climbing.

If you've decided on a pet parakeet, Ranger Rick suggests an easy way to tell whether the bird is male or female: "On a female, the flesh above the beak (called a cere) is usually brown; the male's cere is blue." Eventually, pet parakeets may learn to copy human sounds or other noises, such as creaking doors, but they don't know the meaning of what they're saying.

Parakeets and lovebirds will live happily as pets. But the endangered large parrots will have a better chance of surviving if left in their native tropical forests, the magazine concludes.

Meaningful equality is goal of new department

Governor James R. Thompson signed legislation during the weekend forming a new Department of Equal Employment Opportunity "to insure that state government institutions and implements meaningful affirmative action policies and practices."

In other action, the governor signed legislation allowing the Fair Employment Practices Commission a total of 300 days, to process a charge, including a 120-day period for fact finding. Currently, the FEPC has 180 days. Its inability to meet the deadline in the past has caused legal action resulting in lengthy backlogs, Thompson said.

He also signed two consumer bills giving people a "stronger voice in controlling utility billings."

The governor also signed legislation intended to redistribute state Title I money more equitably to aid disadvantaged children.

Speaking at a bill-signing ceremony before addressing a weekly meeting of Operations PUSH, the governor said, "State government must take a leadership position in demonstrating a commitment to equal employment opportunity."

"Creation of this new department will afford agencies in the executive branch an impetus to comply with the spirit and letter of affirmative action laws, policies and rules," he said.

In signing House Bill 3202, sponsored by Representatives Daniel Houlihan, Cornelia Davis and Susan Catania and Senator Richard Newhouse, all of Chicago, the governor approved creating the new Department of Equal Employment Opportunity, effective Jan. 1, to "provide motivation and technical expertise for each agency of state government to fulfill its obligations as a fair and equitable employer."

He added that the action marked only the beginning of changes he intends to make to strengthen protection of the human rights of Illinois citizens.

"The state suffers now from the lack of an organized program to prevent and eliminate discrimination in several important areas," he said.

"To make a commitment to human rights, Illinois needs a single, strong, accountable agency dedicated to vigorous enforcement of a variety of anti-discrimination laws."

"It is my hope that the Department of Equal Employment Opportunity can serve as its cornerstone."

In signing House Bill 3275, sponsored by Representatives Houlihan, Davis and Catania and Senator Richard Guidice, all of Chicago, the governor said that the FEPC will be under clearing deadlines for clearing up lengthy delays.

"In the past, the Supreme Court has ruled that the FEPC has no jurisdiction in cases beyond 180 days and all backlog cases were dismissed—leaving plaintiffs out in the cold," he said.

In signing House Bills 2949 and 2950, sponsored by Representatives Davis, Raymond, Ewell and Charles Gaines, all of Chicago, and Senator Earlean Collins of Oak Park, the governor gave consumers the right to have a greater say in keeping utility bills down.

HB 2950 gives the utility customer 30 days in which to demand evidence that a large utility bill is a result of increased usage or illegal meter tampering.

The bill also provides an adjustment procedure for these disputed bills.

HB 2949 requires that a utility notify tenants of potential service suspension if the landlord does not pay a building's utility bill.

After receiving the notification, the tenants may pay overdue bills or petition a court to appoint a receiver of rents due. The receiver would pay the utility bills out of the rents collected.

Although the governor had already signed HB 2891 dealing with state Title I funding, he said he was signing HB 2819 for symbolic emphasis, and to assure that the money "follows disadvantaged children through the system, rather than being granted directly to the system."

Beginning in fiscal 1979-80, one-third of 56 percent of Title I funds received in Chicago will be targeted to individual schools based on the number of Title I children enrolled at each attendance center.

American Indians club topic

"Little Known People and Events in American History" is the study topic for the year selected by members of Bay View Reading Club at the first meeting held last week in the home of the president, Mrs. Ruth Huxel.

Mrs. A. E. Krumsiek, program chairman, announced in lieu of the Oct. 12 meeting the club members are to take a trip to Principia College and are to stop at Elsie Landing for lunch. In keeping with the theme for the year-long study, Miss Hazel Towery presented a program on the American Indians, dwellers of the Mesa Verde. She discussed the Cheyenne tribes and Sioux Indians at the battle of War Bonnet Creek and concluded with a review of black slavery among the Cherokee Indians.

Mrs. Huxel served a 1 o'clock afternoon dessert luncheon to 15 members and one new member, Mrs. Dorothy Miller.

To open the session Mrs. Krumsiek led the pledge to the flag and the club collect. Miss Mary Frances Lynch served as program secretary for Mrs. Chris Louis, who is a hospital patient. Members responded to roll call with current events and the president announced the Sept. 28 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. E. M. Arnovitz.

Future Secretaries form separate clubs

Granite City High School North and South will for the first time this year have individual Future Secretaries Association chapters. Their charter was originally granted in 1971, and they have held joint meetings even though the schools separated several years ago. Last year's membership in FSA rose to an all-time high of 99 junior and senior secretarial students.

Mrs. Judi Spurrier Sparks, one of the original advisors, has resigned from that position this school term, due to taking on added responsibilities at GCHS-North, and she has been replaced by Mrs. Linda Haddix as faculty advisor. Mrs. Jeanette Holder will continue as faculty advisor for GCHS-South. A meeting of the faculty advisors and Mrs. Charlene Vunovic, FSA Chairman from the Tri-Cities Chapter, The National Secretaries Association (Int'l.), was held earlier this week, and plans were formulated for this year's educational meetings.

South will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 19. A program was presented by Ruth Belleville, who is also program coordinator for the "Women Involved" workshop sponsored by Granite City BPW Club on Sept. 16. Mrs. Belleville will speak to the group on the importance of assertiveness and aiming beyond a secretarial career to the field of administrative assistant and beyond.

At North's first meeting at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 26, a representative of the telephone company will be on hand to show a humorous film and instruct the girls in proper telephone usage.

Juniors who are eligible for FSA membership will be notified by a special invitation of their eligibility, and will be invited to attend the first meeting. Initiation and installation services will be held on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 15, and all parents and former FSA members will be invited to attend this highlight of the FSA year. Any student who wishes to become an FSA member but who has not received an invitation is urged to contact Mrs. Holder or Mrs. Haddix, and their grades will be checked to determine eligibility.

Parents Club to meet Wednesday

The general meeting of Parents Without Partners, Granite City Chapter 470, will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 27, at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Nameoki Road. Randy Ross from Illinois Power Co., will speak on Conserving Energy and relate tips on how to keep homes warm during the winter, according to the president, Arlene Boner.

NEW OFFICERS of North High School Future Secretaries Association meet with Mrs. Linda Haddix, advisor, to plan six educational programs for the school year. Seated from left, Rena Hill, president and Karen Myracle, vice-president. Standing Anita Wallace, recording secretary; Sharon Sackett, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Haddix, Rita Collins and Suzy Thomason, board members at large.

SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL students at first meeting of the Future Secretaries Association board of directors, held in Room 203 of the school. Seated at typewriter is FSA President Dawn Cox. Standing from left, board members at large, May Arney and Angie Griffer; Vice-president Theresa Heinze; Jeanette Holder, faculty advisor; Merna Webb, secretary, and Lori Taylor, treasurer. Not present for the picture was Tracey Arnold, corresponding secretary.

Women of Moose enrolls member

Mrs. Janet Pemble, sponsored by Sara Gusewelle, was enrolled as a new member of the Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, at a monthly meeting, last week. Senior Regent Sara Gusewelle presided at the session following a theme of "publicity right."

She introduced Denise Snider, a student nurse attending Belleville Area College, and an employee at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Belleville. Mrs. Dorothy Coy, recorder, presented Miss Snider with a monetary gift on behalf of the chapter, as they sponsor her while attending college. Publicity Chairman Cheryl Jones was escorted to the seniors station and presented with a corsage as a token of appreciation for her work in the chapter. She in turn introduced her committee. Installation ceremonies were also held for Alice Knipping, Academy of Friendship chairman, and Mildred Mees, hospital chairman.

After the business segment refreshments were served to 40 members and several prizes were awarded during the social hour.

John 1:1: "... In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

Persons from every walk of life have tried to pry some deep mysterious truth from this passage of scripture. They seem convinced that God said one thing and meant something entirely different. It seems, many times, that while they wrestle with understanding God, they have no personal relationship with Him.

It's simple. If you want to know God — read His Word. If you want to be saved and become a Christian — read His Word. If you want to live a clean, wholesome, Holy and righteous life — read His Word!

God and His Word are one! Christ prayed this prayer: "Holy Father, keep those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are." Through His Word, you may be one with God.

Why not? Today?

Mrs. Malottki club hostess

Mrs. Al Malottki, 33 Oaklawn Drive, entertained the Gardeners Garden Club, last week, at a dessert luncheon to open its fall meeting schedule.

President Mrs. Robert Heintz conducted the business meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. Leo Schank on the mini garden center located at the Granite City Public Library. She added the display features suggestions and advice on putting a garden to rest for the winter.

Ways and means chairman, Mrs. Roy Hornmann, said her committee has a supply of dried and preserved material arranged on plaques, and they are being offered for sale.

The program for the day on horticulture was on types of plants. Mrs. Earl Glenn, horticulture chairman, displayed a gloriosa lily and discussed its history and care.

A letter was read from the Lincoln Memorial Garden informing the club of the extensive damage the garden suffered during the ice storm last March, the unprecedented vandalism the last few months. The club voted to adopt this as their conservation project and send a contribution of $100 to the garden. The Lincoln Memorial Garden, which is world famous as a living tribute to Abraham Lincoln, is located south of Springfield, Ill., and is maintained in part by the Garden Clubs of Illinois. The garden is open to the public year round, and special programs, and classes are made available to children and adults by the well trained and qualified staff, it was noted.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Charles Kohl presented the program on the Indian origin of many of our present day foods, and the progress and problems connected with the evolution of corn, which is considered the backbone of American agriculture.

Before adjourning, the members viewed the hostess's garden and plant room. Program chairman, Mrs. Allen Tarpoil reminded the members the October meeting will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 10, and will be a trip to Elsie's and a tour of Principia College. Others attending were Mrs. Mary Kristian, Mrs. Abe Shannon, Mrs. William Long and Mrs. C. E. Eads.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brokaw selected a full length peach knit sleeveless gown with a high neckline trimmed in lace, complemented with a matching jacket.

Mrs. MacDermid was attired in a pale yellow formal length dress featuring a high neckline and long sleeves.

A 1975 graduate of Granite City High School South, the bride is a senior student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she is majoring in mathematics. She will continue her education at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

The groom was graduated in 1974 from Alcona High School and is also a senior student at MSU where he is majoring in engineering arts, and specializing in industrial design. After graduation he will begin pilot training with the U.S. Air Force.

They are now residing in East Lansing, Mich.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM E. ELLINGTON whose wedding was solemnized at City Temple Assembly of God Church. Formerly Nancy Lee Baker, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hairel T. Baker, 2819 Myrtle Ave.

Nancy Lee Baker marries William Edwin Ellington

A wedding arch decorated with yellow wedding bells and greenery and bouquets of yellow daisies on the altar, provided the setting at City Temple Assembly of God Church for the wedding on Aug. 19 of Miss Nancy Lee Baker and William Edwin Ellington.

The Rev. A. E. Cope performed a double ring ceremony at 6 o'clock in the evening. Wedding music included "Love Story," "If," and "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face."

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Hairel T. Baker, 2819 Myrtle Ave. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ellington, 3139 Dodge Ave.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Baker chose a full length white Qiana gown fashioned with an Empire bodice, high neckline and long fitted sleeves, lavishly applied with silk Venice lace motifs.

Her slightly full skirt extended into a chapel train and was also trimmed with Venice lace.

She wore a Juliet cap of lace and pearls to hold in place her fingertip veil bordered with matching lace and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white roses encircled with baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Janet Berndt, a sister of the bride, and serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Paula Brown and Mrs. Kristy Cox.

They selected identical styling Empire gowns created with sleeveless bodices and scoop necklines in buttercup yellow, ginger and mint green hues.

Each attendant held a colonial bouquet of pastel daisy pom poms and they wore a matching floral headband. Tara Simmons was the flower girl, and Patrick Crockerell served as the ringbearer.

She was dressed in a frock identical to the adult attendants and she carried a wicker basket of yellow rose petals.

The groom chose Greg Moudin as best man. Jake Trjtan, Bill Laub, Terry Baker and David Patterson completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Both the rehearsal dinner and reception was held at the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of South High School and is employed at Southwestern Bell. Her husband was graduated in 1974 from South High School. He is a senior student at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy and is working at Reese Drug Store in Belleme Shopping Center. They are residing in Granite City.

An invitation was read to a silent auction night to be held in Collinsville on Oct. 12, hosted by the Collinsville Past Matrons Club.

For her wedding, the bride chose a long A-line white polyester gown designed with an Empire bodice, sheer yoke and high neckline, accented with Venice lace, etched with pearls.

Venise lace marked the cuffs of the full bishop sleeves and edged the chapel length train.

They were mint green gowns fashioned with short cap sleeves and carried bouquets of yellow carnations, daisies and baby's breath. Each attendant wore sprigs of baby's breath in their hair.

Dennis Fliton attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were John Scott, a brother of the groom, Doug and Dan Reed, the bride's cousins, and Clay Brown.

OVER COST
For Your New Car!

(Unless YOU KNOW what the dealer's cost really is)

HERE'S A HINT...

If the dealer has included in his so called "cost" such variables as insurance, depreciation, interest, advertising, servicing, sales commissions, etc., then the business that best controls these factors has the least "cost." For it is a known fact that all dealers pay exactly the same price for a given car.

There is NO WAY that any other dealer can better our LOW OVERHEAD price on a new Chrysler or Plymouth

"PLAIN TALK!"

FROM YOUR "TRI-CITY"
GROCERS...

There's always a lot of talk going on at Tri-City, but some of the nicest talk we get is the "Plain Talk," the over-the-shoulder, "See you next week" talk that our customers say to our checkers.

What we like about it is that our customers evidently enjoy their shopping at Tri-City. After moving up and down the aisles and counters, after going down their long food lists, they've found enough of what they like, at the prices they like to pay - and in the quality they expect for their money - to smile and tell us they'll be back again.

This is the feedback we like to get for our efforts to do the best job we know how to make food shopping convenient and pleasant. Our buyers make the effort by scouring every market and growing area... our store personnel makes the effort by being ever ready to help you, to answer your questions, to be of service.

This is the neighborly way to do business, the way we started in 1914 and the way we will continue.
